Re: Harkenrider et al. v Hochul et al., Index No. E2022-0116CV

Dear Justice McAllister:

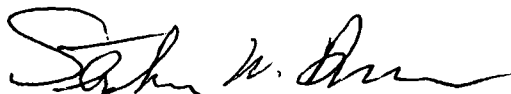

The map that I previously submitted to your court was based on the prisoner adjusted populations in New York state. I have now been informed that the census resident populations rather than the prisoner adjusted populations should have been used as a result of a court decision that was handed down last fall. Consequently, below are the DRA links to two Congressional two maps which are based on the census population not adjusted for the prisoner population. I have submitted to Dr. Cervas the shape files for his consideration and use, which allow for more accuracy than the DRA utility.
