A. Plaintiffs' Deposition Testimony Designations and Objections Thereto

1. Romo Plaintiffs

The Legislative Parties served their designations of deposition testimony to be presented at trial on April 30, 2014. Plaintiffs reserve the right to submit corresponding deposition counterdesignations to be offered into evidence.

2. Coalition Plaintiffs

The Legislative Parties served their designations of deposition testimony to be presented at trial on April 30, 2014. The Coalition Plaintiffs reserve their right to object to certain, if not all, of the designated testimony and will file a motion in limine. Should the Court deny the Coalition Plaintiffs' motion to exclude said testimony, the Coalition Plaintiffs reserve the right to submit corresponding deposition counterdesignations to be offered into evidence.

B. Legislative Parties' Deposition Testimony Designations and Objections Thereto

A copy of the Legislative Parties' list of deposition testimony designations that may be offered into evidence and objections thereto is attached as Exhibit "F."

The parties continue to meet and confer on those issues, including regarding a protocol for providing advance notice and the opportunity to object to any proposed visual aids/demonstratives.

VIII. REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

If not stipulated to by the other parties, the Legislative Parties will seek judicial notice of maps and data associated with redistricting plans, including all data contained in District Builder and MyDistrictBuilder; all election results as reported by the Florida Department of State, Division of Elections; statewide precinct maps compiled by professional staff of the Florida Legislature from official records of supervisors of elections and the Florida Department of State, Division of Elections; voter registration counts and election results compiled by the Florida Legislature from official records of supervisors of elections and the Florida Department of State, Division of Elections; and all data, maps, and other information produced by the United States Census Bureau.

IX. AUDIO OR VISUAL AIDS REQUESTS OF THE COURT ADMINISTRATION

To enable an efficient presentation of evidence, the parties are in the process of arranging a faster, more robust Internet connection be permitted in the trial courtroom. Counsel for the Parties request a commercial Internet Service Provider supplied Ethernet-based dedicated Internet connection for use in the courtroom to ensure adequate Internet access. The Legislative Parties, Romo Plaintiffs, and Coalition Plaintiffs have agreed to evenly split any costs associated with this upgrade.

The parties also request leave to bring into the courtroom and to utilize any electronic equipment they may need to facilitate the presentation of their respective cases. The Parties intend to bring their own computers, equipment, and cables to display visuals, and anticipate requesting technical assistance, if needed, from the Court Administrator during trial (e.g., to establish the dedicated Internet connection and test and configure display and projection equipment before the trial, and to use the dedicated Internet connection during the trial in connection with the use of District Builder and MyDistrictBuilder).

X. TRANSLATOR, INTERPRETER OR ADA ACCOMMODATIONS

None.

XI. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH TRIAL ORDER

In addition to specific objections noted in Exhibit “C,” Plaintiffs object to the Legislative Parties’ exhibit list in its entirety for failure to comply with the Court’s Fifth Order Modifying Order Setting Non-Jury Trial entered on April 4, 2014. Legislative Parties’ exhibit list insufficiently describes the documents that may be used at trial, thereby impeding the Plaintiffs’ ability to identify said documents. Plaintiffs further object to the Legislative Parties’ disclosure of potential trial exhibits after the deadline for final disclosures in the Court’s Fifth Order Modifying Order Setting Non-Jury Trial entered on April 4, 2014.

In addition to specific objections noted in Exhibits “E” and “F,” the Legislative Parties object to the Romo Plaintiffs’ and Coalition Plaintiffs’ exhibit lists in its entirety for failure to comply with the Court’s Fifth Order Modifying Order Setting Non-Jury Trial entered on April 4, 2014. Plaintiffs’ exhibit lists are overbroad and overinclusive and do not enable the Legislative Parties to focus their trial preparations on matters that will be raised at trial. The Legislative Parties further object that Plaintiffs’ exhibit lists contain entries that insufficiently describe the documents that may be used at trial, thereby impeding the Legislative Parties' ability to identify said documents.

ROMO PLAINTIFFS' FINAL PRETRIAL DISCLOSURES

Pursuant to the Fifth Order Modifying Order Setting Non-Jury Trial entered April 4, 2014, Plaintiffs Rene Romo, Benjamin Weaver, William Everett Warinner, Jessica Barrett, June Keener, Richard Quinn Boylan, and Bonita Agan (the "Romo Plaintiffs") hereby make the following disclosures.¹

I. WITNESSES²

A. Witnesses Plaintiffs Intend to Call at Trial

No.	Witness	Summary
	Ansolabehere, Stephen, Ph.D. Expert Witness Address: Department of Government, Harvard University, 1737 Cambridge Street, CGIS Knafel Building 410, Cambridge, MA 02138 Phone: (617) 496-0234 Areas of Expertise: American electoral politics and public opinion; statistical methods in social sciences; voting behavior and elections; application of statistical methods to voting behavior and elections.	Substance of Opinions and Summary of Grounds: Dr. Ansolabehere will testify to several opinions based on his analyses of Florida's 2012 enacted congressional plan (the "Enacted Map") and the two alternative maps proposed by the Romo Plaintiffs (the "Alternative Maps"). Specifically, Dr. Ansolabehere will testify that unlike the Enacted Map, the Alternative Maps do not favor a political party or an incumbent and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Fair District Amendments. The Alternative Maps demonstrate that it was readily possible for the Legislature to construct a map that eliminates partisanship and incumbency protection, improves opportunities for minorities to elect their preferred candidates, and reduces the number of splits of preexisting political boundaries. Dr. Ansolabehere will also comment on the incumbency-related effects of specific boundaries. Dr. Ansolabehere will also offer testimony to rebut the testimony of Defendants' expert witness Richard Engstrom. Specifically, Dr. Ansolabehere will testify that Dr. Engstrom's report confirms Dr. Ansolabehere's conclusion that the CD 5 in the Enacted Map and the Alternative Maps are plurality African American districts in which African Americans can easily elect their preferred candidates, and that Dr. Engstrom analyzes an atypical election in forming his judgments about the extent of racial voting behaviors in the areas of CDs 5 and 10. Dr. Ansolabehere will also testify to his analysis of the Val Demings election, which further demonstrates that the Enacted CD 10 is not a district in which minorities have the ability to elect their preferred candidates, but CD 10 in the Alternative Maps would be such a district, owing to sufficient cross-over vote. Finally, Dr. Ansolabehere

² In addition to the witnesses listed below, the Romo Plaintiffs reserve the right to call any witnesses listed in the Coalition Plaintiffs' disclosures, Defendants' disclosures, Intervenor's disclosures, and all supplements thereto, all of which are incorporated herein by reference.

		analyzed changes from Congressional Plan No. 9043 to 9047, focusing in particular on the changes to CDs 5 and 9 and adjacent districts in those plans. He will testify that the changes to these districts were unnecessary for compliance with the Voting Rights Act and had the effect of improving Republican performance in districts that were highly competitive in Congressional Plan 9043. Further details about Dr. Ansolabehere's expected testimony, and the grounds for his opinions, can be found in his written reports, the first of which were attached as Exhibits A and B to the Romo Plaintiffs' Initial Disclosures served in October 2013, and the most recent of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to these Supplemental Disclosures and hereby incorporated by reference.
	Cannon, Dean (Former Rep.) Address: Capitol Insight, 301 S. Bronough St., Suite 500, Tallahassee, FL 32301 Phone: 850-577-1403	Summary of Expected Testimony: Rep. Cannon was the Speaker of the House during times relevant to this litigation. Discovery has revealed that he was communicating with Republican operatives and at least one U.S. Representative about redistricting during times relevant to this litigation. Plaintiffs expect that Rep. Cannon's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition taken on March 14, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Chen, Jowei, Ph.D. Expert Witness Address: Department of Political Science, University of Michigan, 5700 Haven Hall, 505 South State Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1045 Phone: (734) 615-9886 Areas of Expertise: Political science, including specifically political geography and the use of computer algorithms and geographic information systems to study questions related to political and economic geography and districting particularly relating to electoral bias and residential patterns.	Substance of Opinions and Summary of Grounds: Dr. Chen will testify that, using simulated redistricting plans as a baseline, the number of Republican seats created by the Legislature's Enacted Map is an extreme statistical outlier and falls outside the range of partisan bias that could be expected from the non-partisan districting process called for in the Florida Constitution. Dr. Chen will also offer testimony to rebut the testimony of Defendants' expert witnesses, Thomas Darling, Professor Nolan McCarty, and Stephen Hodge. Specifically, Dr. Chen will testify as to the profound demographic shift in the geographic distribution of partisanship in Florida between 2000 and 2008; that his opinion that the Enacted Map is a statistical outlier is strengthened by including additional Florida statewide elections in the simulations; and that, of all of the proposed

		redistricting plans submitted to the Florida Legislature by the public and members of the Legislature, only one--the Enacted Map--produced 17 pro-McCain districts. Each of the remaining 42 plans produced 16 or fewer pro-McCain seats. Dr. Chen will further testify that, after making certain adjustments in response to Mr. Hodge's critique, including adjusting the algorithm to include a quantifiable measurement of district compactness for the simulated districts, imposing stringent requirements for the preservation of cities, examining plans with Hispanic super-majority districts, and adjusting population calculations, his conclusion that the enacted map is an extreme statistical outlier, virtually impossible to produce through a non-partisan redistricting process, is even stronger. Further details about Dr. Chen's expected testimony, and the grounds for his opinions, can be found in his written reports, which were attached as Exhibits C and D to the Romo Plaintiffs' Initial Disclosures served in October 2013, and the most recent of which is attached as Exhibit 2 to these Supplemental Disclosures and hereby incorporated by reference.
	Gaetz, Don (Sen.) Address: 212 Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee, FL 32399-1100 Phone: 850-487-5001	Summary of Expected Testimony: Sen. Gaetz served as the Chair of the Senate Committee on Reapportionment during times relevant to this litigation and was identified by the Senate in responses to Plaintiffs' interrogatories as a person who had responsibility related to redistricting during that time. Plaintiffs expect that Sen. Gaetz's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on February 27, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Heffley, Richard Address: 8975 Winged Foot Dr., Tallahassee, FL 32312-4041 Phone: 850-668-0759	Summary of Expected Testimony: Mr. Heffley is a Republican operative who was extensively involved in redistricting in Florida and who met privately with and advised legislative staffers on redistricting during times relevant to this litigation. Mr. Heffley also worked closely with other Republican operatives, some of whom directly communicated with members of the Legislature and their staff, about redistricting during times

		relevant to this litigation. Plaintiffs expect that Mr. Heffley's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on May 17, 2013, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Holder, Doug (Rep.) Address: 303 The Capital, 402 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee, FL 32399-3200 Phone: 850-717-5074	Summary of Expected Testimony: Rep. Holder was a member of the House Redistricting Committee and served as the Co-Chair of the House Congressional Redistricting Subcommittee during times relevant to this litigation and was identified by the House in responses to Plaintiffs' interrogatories as a person who had responsibility related to redistricting. Plaintiffs anticipate that Rep. Holder's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Katz, Jonathan, Ph.D. Expert Witness Address: D.H.S.S. (228-77), California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, CA 91125 Phone: (626) 395-4191 Areas of Expertise: Political methodology (i.e., the development and use of statistical and research tools in political science); American elections; the statistical evaluation of electoral data; voting systems.	Substance of Opinions and Summary of Grounds: Dr. Katz will testify to his opinion that the Enacted Map is significantly biased in favor of Republicans. This opinion is based on statistical analysis of historical election data from 2002 to 2010, as well as Dr. Katz's extensive expertise in redistricting in the United States. Dr. Katz will also testify that an analysis of results from the November 6, 2012 election similarly supports his opinion that the Enacted Map is significantly biased in favor of Republicans. Further details about Dr. Katz's expected testimony, and the grounds for his opinions, can be found in his written report, which was attached to the Romo Plaintiffs Initial Disclosures as Exhibit E and is hereby incorporated by reference.
	Kelly, J. Alex Address: Foundation for Florida's Future, PO Box 10691, Tallahassee, FL 32302 Phone: 850-391-3070	Summary of Expected Testimony: Mr. Kelly served as the staff director for the House Redistricting Committee and Congressional Redistricting Subcommittee during times relevant to this litigation. In that capacity he was responsible for managing the staff, coordinating the public hearings, presenting proposals to the committee, interacting with the public, creating proposals, interacting with Senate staff, and related tasks. Mr. Kelly was identified by the House in responses to Plaintiffs' interrogatories as a person who had responsibility related to redistricting. Plaintiffs expect that Mr. Kelly's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on March 5, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.

	Legg, John (Sen.) Address: 316 Senate Office Building, 404 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee 32399-1100 Phone: 850-487-5017	Summary of Expected Testimony: Sen. Legg served as Co-Chair of the House Congressional Redistricting Subcommittee during times relevant to this litigation and was identified by the House in responses to Plaintiffs' interrogatories as a person who had responsibility related to redistricting. Plaintiffs expect that Sen. Legg's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on February 28, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Pepper, Kirk Address: Capitol Insight, 301 S. Bronough St., Suite 500, Tallahassee, FL 32301 Phone: 850-577-1403	Summary of Expected Testimony: Mr. Pepper was an aide to then-Speaker of the House, Dean Cannon, at times relevant to this litigation. Discovery has revealed that Mr. Pepper was providing Republican operative Marc Reichelderfer with draft legislative congressional redistricting maps, weeks before the Legislature's maps were made public, and asking for and receiving Mr. Reichelderfer's political advice and input about redistricting during times relevant to this litigation. Plaintiffs expect that Mr. Pepper's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on February 27, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.
	Precourt, Stephen (Rep.) Address: 418 The Capital, 402 South Monroe Street, Tallahassee, FL 32399-3200 Phone: 850-717-5044	Summary of Expected Testimony: Rep. Precourt served as the Vice-Chair of the House Redistricting Committee during times relevant to this litigation and was identified by the House in responses to Plaintiffs' interrogatories as a person who had responsibility related to redistricting. Plaintiffs expect that Mr. Precourt's testimony will be similar to that in his deposition, taken on March 17, 2014, and hereby incorporated by reference.
	Reichelderfer, Marc Address: 3616 Mossy Creek Lane, Tallahassee, FL 32311-3638 Phone: 850-205-2022	Summary of Expected Testimony: Mr. Reichelderfer is a Republican operative who privately met with and advised legislative staffers on redistricting during times relevant to this litigation. Mr. Reichelderfer also worked closely with other Republican operatives, some of whom directly communicated with members of the Legislature and their staff, about redistricting during times relevant to this litigation. Plaintiffs expect that Mr. Reichelderfer's testimony will be similar to that in his depositions, taken on May 16, 2013 and March 28, 2014, hereby incorporated by reference.

	Rodden, Jonathan, Ph.D. Expert Witness Address: Department of Political Science, 616 Serra Street, Encina Hall Central, Room 444, Stanford, CA 94305-6044 Phone: (650) 723-5219 Areas of Expertise: Political science, including specifically political and economic geography and the use of geographic information systems to analyze districting and the translation of votes to seats, as well as the relationship between residential patterns and electoral bias in the United States.	Substance of Opinions and Summary of Grounds: Dr. Rodden will testify that, using simulated redistricting plans as a baseline, the number of Republican seats created by the Enacted Map is an extreme statistical outlier and falls outside the range of partisan bias that could be expected from the non-partisan districting process called for in the Florida Constitution. A. Witnesses Plaintiffs Intend to Call at Trial

No.	Witness	Summary
	Ansolabehere, Stephen, Ph.D. Expert Witness Address: Department of Government, Harvard University, 1737 Cambridge Street, CGIS Knafel Building 410, Cambridge, MA 02138 Phone: (617) 496-0234 Areas of Expertise: American electoral politics and public opinion; statistical methods in social sciences; voting behavior and elections; application of statistical methods to voting behavior and elections.	Substance of Opinions and Summary of Grounds: Dr. Ansolabehere will testify to several opinions based on his analyses of Florida’s 2012 enacted congressional plan (the “Enacted Map”) and the two alternative maps proposed by the Romo Plaintiffs (the “Alternative Maps”). Specifically, Dr. Ansolabehere will testify that unlike the Enacted Map, the Alternative Maps do not favor a political party or an incumbent and otherwise comply with the requirements of the Fair District Amendments. The Alternative Maps demonstrate that it was readily possible for the Legislature to construct a map that eliminates partisanship and incumbency protection, improves opportunities for minorities to elect their preferred candidates, and reduces the number of splits of preexisting political boundaries. Dr. Ansolabehere will also comment on the incumbency-related effects of specific boundaries. Finally, Dr. Ansolabehere will also offer testimony to rebut the testimony of Defendants’ expert witness Richard Engstrom. Specifically, Dr. Ansolabehere will testify that Dr. Engstrom’s report confirms Dr. Ansolabehere’s conclusion that the CD 5 in the Enacted Map and the Alternative Maps are plurality African American districts in which African Americans can easily elect their preferred candidates, and that Dr. Engstrom

^B In addition to the witnesses listed below, the Romo Plaintiffs reserve the right to call any witnesses listed in the Coalition Plaintiffs’ Final Disclosures - Witness List, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Dr. Ansolabehere will also testify to his analysis of the Val Demings election, which further demonstrates that the Enacted CD 10 is not a district in which minorities have the ability to elect their preferred candidates, but CD 10 in the Alternative Maps would be such a district, owing to sufficient cross-over vote. Further details about Dr. Ansolabehere's expected testimony, and the grounds for his opinions, can be found in his written reports, which are attached as Exhibits A and B and hereby incorporated by reference.

Dr. Chen will also offer testimony to rebut the testimony of Defendants' expert witnesses, Thomas Darling and Professor Nolan McCarty. LEGISLATIVE PARTIES' GENERAL OBJECTIONS

In addition to the objections noted above, the Legislative Parties assert the following objections:

- The Legislative Parties object on the basis of hearsay to the use of any article (including news articles pasted into email correspondence not otherwise objected to) to prove the truth of the matter asserted therein.
- If an exhibit appears more than once on an exhibit list, or appears on more than one exhibit list, the Legislative Parties incorporate in each place all objections asserted with respect to the same exhibit in any other place.
- Where an exhibit list incorporates by express reference documents that appear on another exhibit list, the Legislative Parties likewise incorporate their objections.
- The Legislative Parties object to Attachment A to the Coalition Plaintiffs' Amended Final Disclosures and CP 1369. Attachment A and CP 1369 are overbroad and overinclusive and do not enable the Legislative Parties to focus their preparations for trial. The Legislative Parties reserve all objections to the introduction of documents identified therein.
- The Legislative Parties reserve all objections with respect to the following documents: CP 1288-1303. The Legislative Parties have not been provided copies of these documents.
- The Legislative Parties reserve all objections with respect to the following documents: CP 673-721. These documents were produced confidentially to Plaintiffs' counsel and have not been produced to the Legislative Parties.
