MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
APPELLEE'S BRIEF

Pursuant to FRAP 26(b) and 11th Cir. R. 31-2(d), counsel for Appellee Secretary of State in the above-captioned appeal seeks an extension of time of 30 additional days to file his response brief. Good cause and extraordinary circumstances justify these requests.

These three appeals arise from district court orders approving legislatively drawn, remedial, statewide redistricting plans for the state of Georgia, which were redrawn following an order of the district court enjoining the use of then-current maps. The Secretary appealed the merits order, which is the subject of separate appeals before this Court, and Plaintiff-Appellants appealed the order approving the remedial plans, which is the subject of these appeals. Appeals of all three remedial orders are on the same schedule. Unlike the merits appeals, which were consolidated, these remedial appeals involve separate orders with specific facts related to the particular maps challenged and different legal arguments by each group of Plaintiff-Appellants.

The Secretary seeks an additional 30 days to prepare his response briefs in these appeals regarding the remedial plans. The Secretary's response briefs are currently due on July 3, 2024.

Since the first extension granted on May 7, 2024, counsel for the Secretary has been required to deal with much greater-than-normal demands on time, including multiple oral arguments in this Court and other courts, as well as numerous briefing deadlines in the U.S. Supreme Court, other U.S. Courts of Appeal, U.S. District Courts, and state courts.

Any delay will not prejudice Plaintiff-Appellants because the district court's approval of the remedial redistricting plans means the earliest any election could be held on any other redistricting plan is 2026. A 30-day extension is highly unlikely to have any impact on the ability of the Court to resolve these appeals well in advance of the 2026 election.

Counsel for the Secretary has consulted with counsel for each group of Plaintiff-Appellants and they consent to this motion.

The Secretary therefore requests that this Court extend the time for his response brief by 30 days from the existing July 3, 2024 deadline to August 2, 2024.

Respectfully submitted this 10th day of June, 2024.
