SAN JOSE DIVISION

NATIONAL URBAN LEAGUE, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

WILBUR L. ROSS, JR., et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 5:20-cv-05799-LHK

JOINT STATUS REPORT ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL RELIEF FROM NON-DISPOSITIVE PRETRIAL ORDER OF MAGISTRATE JUDGES

Re: Dkt. Nos. 408, 409, 411

Date: TBD
Time: TBD
Place: Courtroom 8
Judge: Hon. Lucy H. Koh

1 On December 26, 2020, Defendants filed a Motion for Relief from Nondispositive 2 Pretrial Order of Magistrate Judges (“Motion for Partial Relief”) (Dkt. 408). Pursuant to the 3 Court’s subsequent Order Re: Response to Defendants’ Motion for Partial Relief from Non-4 Dispositive Pretrial Order of Magistrate Judges (“December 26 Order”) (Dkt. 409), and Order
5 Continuing Case Management conference (Dkt. 411), the parties present the following Joint 6 States Report.

7 I. PLAINTIFFS’ POSITION

8 A. BACKGROUND

9 On December 23, 2020, in accordance with the Magistrate Judge Panel’s December 15, 10 2020 Order on Further Procedures For In Camera Review of Documents on Privilege Logs 11 (“Order on Privilege Procedures”) (Dkt. 383), Plaintiffs and Defendants submitted simultaneous 12 briefing regarding Plaintiffs’ objections to Defendants’ assertions of privilege in their December 13 21 log. See Dkt. 403, 404. Plaintiffs’ objections highlighted the fact that Defendants’ December 14 21 privilege log contained a mere 135 documents (see Dkt. 404-1 (Ex. A)), notwithstanding 15 Defendants’ December 12, 2020 representation to the Court that “a significant number of 16 documents—as many as 2,944—are likely subject to Executive privilege,” as they “include 17 communications between federal agency personnel and presidential advisers or members of their 18 staff in the Office of the President.” December 12, 2020 Decl. of Brian DiGiacomo (“December 19 12 DiGiacomo Declaration”) (Dkt. 376-2) at ¶ 12 (emphasis added). Contrary to this prior 20 representation, Defendants’ small December 21 privilege log did not include a single assertion of 21 Executive privilege. See Dkt. 404 at 2-3. Plaintiffs asked the Court to order Defendants to 22 immediately produce the 2,944 documents described in paragraph 12 of Mr. DiGiacomo’s 23 declaration as being reviewed for White House privilege, except for any subset of documents for 24 which privilege was being claimed on Defendants’ December 21 privilege log and which were 25 not challenged by Plaintiffs and resolved by the Court’s Order. Id.

26 On December 24, 2020, the Magistrate Judge Panel agreed and ordered Defendants to 27 “produce all of the 2,944 documents that declarant Brian DiGiacomo identified on December 12 28 as ‘likely subject to Executive privilege’ in ECF 376-2 ¶ 12, unless they were identified in the

1 December 21 log and the privilege was not overruled in this order.” Order After In Camera
2 Review of Disputed Documents Identified in Government’s December 21 Privilege Log (“Order
3 on Defendants’ December 21 Privilege Log”) (Dkt. 407) (noting also that Plaintiffs have raised 4 “many concerning issues” regarding Defendants’ discovery conduct).

5 On December 26, 2020, Defendants filed a Motion for Partial Relief, asking the Court to 6 reverse the Magistrate Judge Panel’s order to produce these documents because these documents 7 are ostensibly not relevant. Dkt. 408. Defendants claimed that, of the 2,944 documents at issue, 8 approximately 400 documents were deemed responsive and were produced; approximately 60 9 documents were deemed privileged; and the remaining more than 2,000 documents were deemed 10 unresponsive, and were not produced or logged. Declaration of Brian DiGiacomo (Dkt. 408-1) 11 (“December 26 DiGiacomo Declaration”) at 4. Defendants acknowledged that none of the 12 documents withheld as privileged were withheld under the Presidential Communication or other 13 Executive privileges. Id.

14 In accordance with the Court’s December 26 Order, the parties met and conferred for 15 approximately two hours on December 28, 2020, discussing these documents and other 16 discovery-related issues. During that meet and confer, Plaintiffs requested that Defendants (1) 17 either produce the approximately 400 documents deemed responsive and not privileged, or 18 provide their Bates numbers if they had already been produced; (2) confirm whether Defendants 19 had logged the 63 documents that were withheld as privileged by providing their corresponding 20 privilege log entry numbers; and (3) agree to a compromise solution regarding the 2,447
21 documents claimed to be non-responsive, in which Plaintiffs would conduct a limited, attorneys’- 22 eyes-only review of those documents and meet and confer with Defendants on next steps 23 involving judicial review, as necessary, to the extent any of the documents appeared responsive 24 to Plaintiffs’ document requests; confidentiality would have been maintained throughout.

25 Defendants agreed to provide the requested information promptly regarding the 400 26 documents that should have been produced and the 63 documents that should have been logged 27 as privileged. Defendants additionally agreed to consider the attorneys’-eyes-only review 28 proposal. In a showing of good faith based on Defendants’ representations, on December 28,

1 2020 Plaintiffs requested that the Court temporarily hold in abeyance the Magistrate Judge
2 Panel’s Order on Defendants’ December 21 Privilege Log, to the extent it required Defendants’ 3 to produce the 2,944 documents in issue. Dkt. 410. Based on Defendants’ representations that 4 the requested information would be promptly provided, Plaintiffs stated that they “hope to be 5 able to provide the Court a further update at or before the case management conference 6 scheduled for tomorrow, December 29, 2020.” Id.

7 The Court ordered the parties to file a joint status report on Defendants’ Motion for 8 Partial Relief by December 29, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. PT. Order Continuing Case Management
9 Conference (Dkt. 411). Despite Defendants’ representations to Plaintiffs, as of 20 minutes 10 before this filing was due, Defendants have not provided Plaintiffs with any of the requested 11 information. The Magistrate Judge Panel ruled on these documents nearly a week ago, and 12 Defendants should have at the ready the basic information requested yesterday by Plaintiffs 13 regarding production and logging. Yet Defendants have continued what can only be described, 14 at this point, as a pattern of delay and obfuscation—despite Plaintiffs working stridently to reach 15 good faith resolution of issued without requiring Court involvement.

16 B. Requested Relief

17 This Court has broad discretion in how best to shape discovery and, when appropriate, to 18 issue sanctions. See 1 Sanc. Fed. Law of Lit. Abuse § 28 (2019) (“The court is vested with broad 19 discretion to fashion an appropriate inherent power sanction to redress abusive litigation 20 practices.”); Shepherd v. Am. Broad. Companies, Inc., 62 F.3d 1469, 1475 (D.C. Cir. 1995) 21 (“[I]nherent power sanctions available to courts include fines, awards of attorneys’ fees and 22 expenses, contempt citations, disqualifications or suspensions of counsel, and drawing adverse 23 evidentiary inferences or precluding the admission of evidence.”).

24 As outlined below, Plaintiffs request that (1) Defendants should immediately produce or 25 identify by Bates number the approximately 400 documents Defendants have deemed responsive 26 and not privileged; (2) Defendants should immediately identify the privilege log entries 27 corresponding to the 63 documents claimed as privilege, and be deemed to have waived any 28 privilege if unable to do so; and (3) because Defendants have not provided any assurances

1 regarding the 2,447 documents they have concluded are not responsive, they should immediately
 2 produce those to Plaintiffs for an initial attorneys’-eyes-only review, after which the parties can 3 meet and confer and, if necessary, raise with the Magistrate Judge Panel any disputes regarding 4 responsiveness.

5 1. Defendants Should Immediately Produce or Identify the Bates
 6 Numbers of the Approximately 400 Documents That Were Deemed 7 Responsive and Have Not Been Logged As Privileged

8 The December 26 DiGiacomo Declaration states that over 400 of the 2,944 documents
 9 “likely subject to Executive privilege” were deemed responsive and not privileged. December 10 26 DiGiacomo Decl. at ¶ 10. During the parties’ December 28 meet and confer, Defendants 11 represented that these documents had been produced, and that they would provide the Bates 12 numbers associated with them. To permit Plaintiffs to ascertain Defendants’ compliance with 13 the Court’s ordered discovery schedule, Defendants agreed to provide Plaintiffs with the Bates 14 numbers of all documents in the group of 2,944 documents in issue that were deemed responsive 15 and not privileged. However, as of this filing, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiffs with 16 the Bates numbers for any of these responsive documents that were allegedly produced. There is 17 no excuse for this. Accordingly, Plaintiffs ask the Court to order Defendants, by December 30 at 18 5 p.m. PT, to produce the documents or to provide the Bates numbers corresponding to the 19 documents if they have been produced.

20 2. Defendants Should Identify the Privilege Log Entries that Correspond 21 to Each of the 63 Allegedly Privileged Documents, or Should be 22 Found to Have Waived All Privileges As To These Documents

23 The December 26 DiGiacomo Declaration states that, of the 2,944 documents originally 24 deemed “likely subject to Executive privilege,” a mere 63 documents involving the White House 25 were deemed responsive and “still claimed as privileged.” December 26 DiGiacomo Decl. at 26 ¶ 10. Defendants agreed to confirm that those documents have been logged and to provide the 27 corresponding log entries. However, they have not done so. Plaintiffs ask the Court to order that 28 by December 30 at 5 p.m. PT, Defendants provide a list of the privilege log entries that correspond to each of the 63 allegedly privileged documents in issue. If Defendants have not in

1 fact logged these documents, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court find that Defendants 2 have waived privilege as to this subset of documents and order their immediate production.<sup>1</sup>

3 3. Defendants Should Produce the Remaining Documents to Plaintiffs 4 for an Initial Attorneys'-Eyes-Only-Review, After Which the Parties
5 Can Meet and Confer Regarding any Responsiveness Disagreements

6 In their Motion for Partial Relief, Defendants assert for the first time that the Department 7 of Commerce determined that “a large number of” the 2,944 documents earlier deemed “likely 8 subject to Executive privilege” were actually not responsive to Plaintiffs’ Requests for 9 Production. Dkt. 408 at 1. Defendants’ Motion provides details as to their search methodology, 10 but notably provides no explanation as to why 83 percent of the documents Defendants 11 previously believed to be responsive were determined not responsive when reviewed. Without 12 any such explanation, Plaintiffs and the Court are left without adequate assurances that 13 Defendants have correctly determined the responsiveness of these documents. Any and all 14 documents related to the census, apportionment, or the Presidential Memorandum are responsive 15 to Plaintiffs’ Request for Production and should be produced; without any information from 16 Defendants, Plaintiffs are unable to determine whether potentially key documents are being 17 withheld as “not responsive” by Defendants.

18 Plaintiffs seek an efficient resolution of production with respect to the more than 2,000 19 documents at issue. Plaintiffs request that the Court order Defendants to produce these 20 documents to Plaintiffs for a limited, attorney’s-eyes-only-review of these documents by outside 21 litigation counsel. See, e.g., Nachurs Alpine Sols., Corp. v. Banks, No. 15-CV-4015-LTS, 2017
22 WL 2918979, at *3-5 (N.D. Iowa July 7, 2017) (ordering defendants to produce documents 23 deemed nonresponsive for plaintiff’s attorney’s eyes only responsiveness review, and 24 emphasizing that the court’s confidence in defendants’ responsiveness designations was 25 “colored” by the “conclusion that defendants ha[d] previously not complied with discovery 26 obligations”). During this initial review, only outside litigation counsel would have access to the 27

28 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs’ December 18, 2020 Response to Court’s Ruling Ordering Defendants to Show Cause (Dkt. 400) is incorporated herein by reference.

1 documents in question, and they would not be reviewed by any named Plaintiffs or other 2 counsel.

3 Following an attorney's-eyes-only review, Plaintiffs will raise with Defendants any 4 documents which Plaintiffs view as responsive. The parties can then ask the Magistrate Judge 5 Panel to rule on any responsiveness disputes the parties are not able to resolve.

6 Plaintiffs' request is informed by Defendants' past defiance of the Court's discovery 7 orders, and their prior productions, which have included large volumes of non-responsive 8 documents. Defendants cannot now, with any credibility, point to the risk of producing a non-9 responsive document to Plaintiffs to attempt to avoid producing these potentially key documents.
10 An attorney's eyes only responsiveness review is both appropriate and necessary, and is more 11 efficient than asking the Magistrate Judge Panel to themselves review 2,447 documents.

12 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court order Defendants to produce all 2,447 13 documents deemed non-responsive to Plaintiffs' litigation counsel at Latham & Watkins by 14 December 30, 2020 at 5 p.m. PT.

15 C. Conclusion

16 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court order that Defendants: (1) provide Bates 17 numbers for the over 400 of 2,944 documents now deemed responsive and not privileged and/or 18 produce all of these documents that have not yet been produced; (2) provide the privilege log entry 19 numbers for the 63 of 2,944 documents "still claimed as privileged" that involve the White House, 20 or produce any documents that have not been logged because the privilege has now been waived;
21 and (iii) produce to litigation counsel at Latham & Watkins all 2,447 of 2,944 documents now 22 deemed non-responsive to Plaintiffs' Requests for Production, to allow for an attorney's-eyes-only 23 responsiveness review. Plaintiffs ask the Court to order Defendants' compliance with these items 24 by December 30, 2020 at 5 p.m. PT.

25 II. DEFENDANTS' POSITION

26 Defendants filed an objection with the Court (ECF 408) related to a subset of material 27 implicated by one aspect of the December 24, 2020 Order by the Magistrate Judges to the extent 28 the Order requires production of documents the Department of Commerce has concluded are not

1 responsive to Plaintiffs’ document requests. See ECF 407 Order After In Camera Review of 2 Disputed Documents Identified in Government’s December 21 Privilege Log (herein after “MJ 3 Privilege Order”). Specifically, a portion of the MJ Privilege Order requires Defendants to 4 “produce the 2,944 documents that declarant Brian DiGiacomo identified on December 12 as 5 ‘likely subject to Executive privilege’ ECF 376-2 ¶ 12, unless they were identified on the 6 December 21 log and the privilege was not overruled in this order.” ECF 407 at 7. With their 7 objection, Defendants submitted an additional declaration of Mr. DiGiacomo, which described 8 the nature of the Department of Commerce’s review of the 2,944 documents and the manner by 9 which the Department of Commerce made its responsiveness determinations. ECF 408-1 at ¶¶ 10 2-12.

11 In accordance with this Court’s Order of December 26, 2020, the parties met and 12 conferred about these documents on Monday, December 27, 2020 by phone. Plaintiffs asked for 13 additional information about the documents, in particular, Bates Ranges for any documents 14 produced out of the 2944 set, as well as Privilege Log entry information for documents deemed 15 responsive but privileged from this same 2944 set. Defendants provided information they were 16 able to gather on December 29, 2020, and will provide Plaintiffs further information if necessary.
17 Defendants regret that they were not able to provide the information to Plaintiffs sooner.

18 During the meet and confer, Plaintiffs also suggested that all non-responsive items from the 19 2944 set be provided to them under an attorneys-eyes arrangement. Defendants do not believe this 20 suggestion is appropriate. First, there is no basis to think that Defendants have made an effort to 21 minimize the production of responsive information from the 2944 set; Mr. DiGiacomo’s additional 22 declaration indicates that reviewers were told to conclude documents were responsive if they 23 related to the “decennial census.” ECF 408-1 at ¶¶ 8-11. Defendants submit that this showing 24 should address any concern about skewed responsiveness determinations. In addition, providing 25 materials to Plaintiffs’ counsel under an attorney’s-eyes only protective order, when such materials 26 are non-responsive and potentially privileged would undermine the adversarial nature of this case.
27 It is not appropriate to allow such access by an opposing party. Defendants believe their objection 28 to be well-supported and ask the Court to set aside this portion of the MJ Privilege Order.
