PLAINTIFFS’ NOTICE OF STATE COURT ACTIONS

1. Plaintiffs hereby provide notice of the filing of at least two state court actions seeking to effectively block Louisiana’s remedial actions.

2. On May 1, 2026, the Elias Law Group, which is also counsel to the Galmon Intervenors, who have been granted intervention in the remedial phase of this case, filed an Emergency Petition for Injunctive Relief and Request for Temporary Restraining Order in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court in the Parish of East Baton Rouge. See Petition in National Council of Jewish Women—Greater New Orleans Section, et al. v. Landry, et al., (the “Elias Action”), attached as Exhibit 1. The named plaintiffs include National Council of Jewish Women—Greater New Orleans Section and several purported voters.

3. The Elias Action seeks to prevent the enforcement of Executive Order JML 26-038, issued by Governor Jeffrey M. Landry, and being carried out by Secretary of State Nancy Landry.

The Elias Action argues that the Executive Order was “issued in excess of executive authority, in violation of Article II, § 2 of the Louisiana Constitution.” Id. at 20 (Prayer for Relief).

4. The Elias Action purports to only target executive authority. But by targeting executive authority that sought to create an opportunity for legislative remedial action, the Elias Action seeks to effectively prevent the State of Louisiana from legislatively moving back the date of the congressional primary election to allow for this Court to order a remedy or approve a legislative remedy. It is yet another attempt to frustrate and impede the remedial jurisdiction of this Court.

5. On information and belief, the TRO application in the Elias Action was denied today.

6. On May 1, 2026, the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, which is also counsel to the Robinson Intervenors in this case, filed its own lawsuit in the same East Baton Rouge state court as the Elias Group (the “NAACP Action”). The NAACP Action includes as named plaintiffs the Louisiana State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People along with various other groups. See Exhibit 2. This lawsuit asserts the same challenge to executive authority as the Elias Action. Id. at pp. 11-12. It also asserts that any postponement of the primary to allow a remedy for the racial gerrymander at issue in this case will necessarily violate the state constitutional right to vote for those voters who have already cast votes, and would have to vote again in a postponed election under new districts. Id. at p. 12.
