 U.S. COURT OF APPEALS
 FOURTH CIRCUIT

MOTION TO COMPEL MEDIATION

Comes now Plaintiff Paul Goldman, pro se, seeking the Court to compel mediation.

ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF MEDIATION

1. The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit has promulgated various local rules to benefit the resolution of matters on appeal in the fairest and most economical fashion.
2. One such rule is "Local Rule 33. Circuit Mediation Conference."
3. This rule says a Counsel "for a party may also request a conference if counsel believes it will be of assistance to the Court or the parties." Id.
4. For the purposes of Judicial economy, Plaintiff has attached his Motion for an Expediated Hearing, the arguments made therein as regards an expediated hearing applicable as appropriate to this request for Mediation.

5. The Counsel for Defendants have told me they oppose Mediation.

Submitted
