JOINT EXHIBIT LIST[1]

[1] As referenced in Legislative Defendants' Objections to Plaintiffs' Pre-Trial Disclosures, in order to streamline the presentation of evidence at trial, Legislative Defendants do not include itemized objections to all exhibits regarding districts that have been dismissed or were never challenged. Instead, Legislative Defendants respectfully request a standing objection based on relevance and Rule 403 (confuses the issues) to the extent that any Joint Exhibits reference districts not at issue in the case. The inclusion of items on this Joint Exhibit List and request for a standing objection should not be construed as consent to try claims against districts that have been dismissed or were never asserted.
