

SUPREME COURT
STATE OF CONNECTICUT

SC 210153

PETITION OF REAPPORTIONMENT COMMISSION, EX REL

December 6, 2021

Notice

The petition to remand to the Reapportionment Commission pursuant to article third, § 6, of the Connecticut constitution (as amended), petitioning to grant the Commission until December 21, 2021, to complete its work as a commission by submitting a plan of districting for the state's congressional districts to the secretary of state by that date, having been presented to the court, counsel for the Reapportionment Commission is hereby ordered to appear for a status conference with the Supreme Court on December 9, 2021, at 9:30 a.m. on Microsoft Teams. Counsel should be prepared to address and provide the following:

1. The status of the commission's consideration of the alteration of the state's congressional districts;
2. The commission's views on the following: (a) whether the court should appoint a special master to assist the court in this matter; (b) if so, the factors to be considered in appointing a special master; (c) the process and procedures to be employed by the special master; (d) the scope of the duties of the special master; (e) the legal and policy parameters governing the redistricting map to be proposed by the special master; and (f) any other matters deemed relevant by the commission;

3. An interim report detailing the progress of the alteration of the congressional districts.

The court retains jurisdiction of this petition and will issue dispositive orders in due course after conclusion of the status conference.

By the Court,
