

STATE OF MAINE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR COMMENT

Supreme Judicial Court invites responses to petition of legislative leaders for an order extending the time for apportionment of legislative, congressional, and county commissioner districts.

President of the Senate Troy D. Jackson, Senate Minority Leader Jeffrey L. Timberlake, Speaker of the House Ryan M. Fecteau, and House Minority Leader Kathleen R. J. Dillingham have filed a petition for an order of the Supreme Judicial Court extending the constitutional deadlines for apportionment of legislative, congressional, and county commissioner districts. The Executive Clerk has docketed the petition under the title In re 2021 Apportionment of Maine House of Representatives, Maine Senate, U.S. House of Representatives, and County Commissioners and has assigned it docket number SJC-21-4.

The Court has issued a procedural order permitting any individual, legal entity, or organization to file a response to the petition.

The petition, the affidavit of Deputy Secretary of State Julie L. Flynn that accompanied the petition, and the Court's procedural order are available at www.courts.maine.gov/appportionment.

Any response must be filed with the Executive Clerk on or before June 18, 2021, and must meet the requirements set forth in the procedural order.
