UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CITIZENS FOR FAIR
REPRESENTATION, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SECRETARY OF STATE ALEX
PADILLA,

Defendant.

No. 2: 17-cv-00973-KJM-CMK

ORDER

A voting rights organization, local government entities, independent political parties and various individual California voters jointly sue the California Secretary of State, arguing the cap on the number of state legislators has abridged their right to self-governance. The court heard defendant’s most recent motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction on June 15, 2018. See Def.’s Mot., ECF No. 42 (filed April 16, 2018). Plaintiffs requested a three-judge court hear this motion, Pls.’ Mot., ECF No. 43, citing 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a). The court proceeded with the hearing for the reasons reviewed below.

1 The court previously has addressed whether and when this case might trigger
2 § 2284(a)'s three-judge court requirement. See Aug. 24 2017 Min. Order, ECF No. 22 (“the court
3 has determined it is premature to request the convening of [a three-judge] court prior to this
4 court’s threshold determination of jurisdiction and justiciability”) (citing Shapiro v. McManus,
5 136 S. Ct. 450, 455 (2015)).

6 Specifically, § 2284(a) provides for the convening of a three judge court “when an
7 action is filed challenging the constitutionality of the apportionment of congressional districts or 8 the apportionment of any statewide legislative body.” 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a). But § 2284 does not 9 require referral to a three-judge court “where the district court itself lacks jurisdiction of the 10 complaint or the complaint is not justiciable in the federal courts.” Shapiro, 136 S. Ct. at 455
11 (quoting Gonzalez v. Automatic Employees Credit Union, 419 U.S. 90, 100 (1974)).

12 On February 1, 2018, the court dismissed plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint for 13 lack of subject-matter jurisdiction, with leave to amend. See Order, ECF No. 32. The court
14 explained plaintiffs lacked standing and the complaint raised only nonjusticiable political 15 questions. Id. at 4-10. Plaintiffs amended the complaint, see Second Am. Compl., ECF No. 39,
16 and defendant has moved to dismiss the amended complaint based on the same jurisdictional
17 grounds. See Def.’s Mot. at 11-16 (arguing plaintiffs still lack standing and complaint still raises 18 nonjusticiable political questions).

19 Until the court resolves defendant’s motion and unless or until it determines a 20 federal court has jurisdiction over plaintiffs’ amended complaint, the court continues to find that
21 convening a three-judge court would be premature. Shapiro, 136 S. Ct. at 455. Plaintiffs’ motion
22 to convene a three-judge court is DENIED, without prejudice.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.

24 This resolves ECF No. 43.

25 DATED: August 1, 2018.
