ORDER

Docket No. 20-3142

Plaintiff - Appellees,

v.

Donald J. Trump, United States Department of Commerce, Wilbur L. Ross, United States Census Bureau, Steven Dillingham, in his official capacity as Director of the United States

Census Bureau,

Defendants - Appellants.

The Government has appealed to this Court and to the Supreme Court to challenge the judgment and permanent injunction issued on September 10, 2020 by the three-judge district court. The Government now requests that the Court hold this appeal in abeyance pending the Supreme Court's resolution of New York v. Trump, Supreme Court Docket No. 20-366. Both sides agree that this appeal should be held in abeyance.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. If the Supreme Court determines that this Court is the appropriate forum for appellate review of the district court's judgment and permanent injunction, the parties shall immediately alert this Court.

For the Court:
Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe,
Clerk of Court
