Case No. 2022-0303

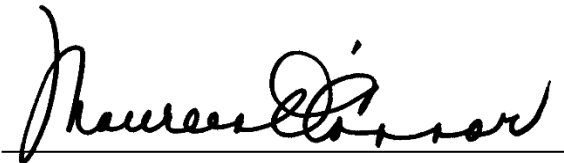

E N T R Y

v.

Secretary of State Frank LaRose, Senate
President Matt Huffman, House Speaker
Robert R. Cupp in their official capacities, and the Ohio Redistricting Commission

This cause originated in this court upon the filing of a complaint invoking this court's original jurisdiction pursuant to Article XIX, Section 3 of the Ohio Constitution and was considered in a manner prescribed by law.

Upon consideration thereof and consistent with the opinion rendered herein, this court declares that the congressional-district plan adopted by respondent Ohio Redistricting Commission on March 2, 2022 does not comply with Article XIX, Section 1(C)(3)(a) of the Ohio Constitution and is therefore invalid. Pursuant to Article XIX, Section 3(B)(1), it is ordered by the court that the General Assembly must pass a new congressional-district plan that complies with the Ohio Constitution within 30 days. If the General Assembly fails to do so, Article XIX, Section 3(B)(2) will require the Ohio Redistricting Commission to adopt a constitutional plan within 30 days of the General Assembly's failure. Costs assessed to respondents.
