DECLARATION OF THOMAS BRYAN

I, Thomas Bryan, declare as follows:

1. I am an expert in demography with over 30 years of experience, and I have 20 years of experience working in the area of reapportionment and redistricting.

2. In March 2021, I was retained by the law firm Butler Snow LLP to provide advice and consultation to the firm as a consultant so that it could advise its clients—the Chairman and his staff of the House Redistricting Committee of the Texas House of Representatives and the General Counsel to the Texas House of Representatives—in state legislative, board of education and congressional reapportionment and redistricting matters in the State of Texas. I acted only as directed by Butler Snow and pursuant to the scope of our engagement. A true and correct copy of the engagement letter I signed with Butler Snow is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. Given that, in my experience, litigation nearly always closely follows any redistricting process, I understood at the time I was retained, and at all times since, that I was retained by Butler Snow in anticipation of litigation. My engagement letter with Butler Snow reflects this mutual understanding.

4. I employed Eric Wienckowski to assist me in my role as a consultant for Butler Snow, and Mr. Wienckowski acted only at my direction to assist in provision of consulting services to the firm. Mr. Wienckowski has no documents in his possession that I do not have in my possession.

5. All documents Mr. Wienckowski and I created in the course and scope of our engagement with Butler Snow were provided only to Butler Snow pursuant to my consulting expert agreement with the firm or, on rare occasions, to the Chairman's staff under Butler Snow's direct supervision.

6. I had no communications with any Butler Snow clients except as directed by Butler Snow. Even then, such communications were at the direction of Butler Snow and/or in the presence of Butler Snow attorneys as part of its provision of legal services. My only interactions with the firm's clients were during introductory meetings with the Chairman and his staff, and these meetings were under the direction and supervision of Butler Snow, as well as later meetings with Adam Foltz, again at the direction of Butler Snow.

7. I declare under penalty of perjury and subject to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION OF SCOTT K. FIELD

I, Scott K. Field, declare as follows:

1. I am a partner at Butler Snow, LLP and previously served as a Justice on the Texas Court of Appeals, Third District, in Austin, Texas. I have practiced law for approximately 27 years, six of them while serving on the Third Court of Appeals. Before my time of service on the court, I was a law clerk at the Supreme Court of Texas and an attorney at Baker Botts LLP, among other firms.

2. The State of Texas hired Butler Snow LLP as outside counsel for Representative Todd Hunter in his role as Chair of the Redistricting Committee for the Texas House of Representatives during the 87th Legislative Session. A true and correct copy of the firm's contract with the State is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Pursuant to this representation, the firm maintained attorney-client relationships with Chairman Hunter and his staff, as well as the General Counsel to the House of Representatives. I was one of the attorneys at Butler Snow who provided this representation.

3. Butler Snow, LLP hired Thomas Bryan as a consultant to assist it with this representation, as authorized in its contract with the State of Texas. A copy of this engagement is attached as Exhibit B. Mr. Bryan then hired Eric Wienckowski to assist him in providing consultation to Butler Snow.

4. Mr. Bryan and anyone assisting him in his role as a consultant for Butler Snow provided services only as directed by Butler Snow to assist it in rendering legal advice and consultation to its clients. The only client of Butler Snow LLP's that the firm directed Mr. Bryan or Mr. Wienckowski to communicate with was Adam Foltz, but such communication was rare and was only as directed by Butler Snow LLP and only as necessary to provide legal advice and consultation to Mr. Foltz and, in turn, Chairman Hunter. The only other interaction between Mr. Bryan and any client of the firm occurred during an introductory meeting with Chairman Hunter and his staff, and this meeting was conducted under the direction and supervision of Butler Snow.

5. I declare under penalty of perjury and subject to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct.

TEXAS LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL CONTRACT FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES No. 21A20

The Texas Legislative Council ("the Council"), an agency within the legislative branch of the government of the State of Texas, and Butler Snow LLP ("the Law Firm"), an organization of attorneys authorized to practice law in Texas, enter into this contract.

Section 1. Duties of the Law Firm. The Law Firm hereby agrees to furnish legal counsel and other legal services, on behalf of the Council, to Representative Todd Hunter, Chair of the House Redistricting Committee, his staff, and the General Counsel to the House to assist them in the performance of their duties. The Law Firm shall report to and is subject to the direction of Representative Hunter. The Law Firm shall retain any necessary experts, which shall be reimbursed according to the provisions of Section 3, if authorized by Representative Hunter.

Section 2. Compensation. In exchange for services described by this contract and actually rendered, the Council agrees to pay the Law Firm for the services provided by the individuals listed in the schedule attached as Exhibit A at the hourly rates listed in Exhibit A.

Each month, the Law Firm shall submit to Chairman Todd Hunter for review and approval an itemized statement of all work performed under this contract during the preceding month, listing time by date for work performed. On approval by Chairman Hunter, the statement shall be forwarded to the Council for final approval and payment.

Section 3. Expenses. In addition to compensation under this contract, the Council shall reimburse the Law Firm for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the Law Firm's services performed under this contract, including necessary travel expenses. The Council will reimburse the Law Firm for travel, food, and lodging expenses in accordance with the State of Texas guidelines for reimbursing a state employee. Original receipts, excluding meal receipts, must be submitted to the Council for reimbursement.

Each month, the Law Firm shall submit to Chairman Hunter for review and approval an itemized statement of all expenses incurred by the Law Firm during the preceding month and for which the Law Firm seeks to be reimbursed under this contract. On approval by Chairman Hunter, the statement shall be forwarded to the Council for final approval and payment of approved expenses.

Section 4. Confidentiality. During the term of this contract and thereafter, the Law Firm agrees to keep confidential all information not otherwise open to the public under Chapter 552, Government Code, coming into the knowledge or possession of the Law Firm in connection with the Law Firm's services rendered under this contract.

Section 5. Termination; Cancellation. This contract terminates on December 31, 2021, unless canceled before that date.

This contract is subject to cancellation at any time by the Council or the Law Firm on seven days' written notice.

In the event of cancellation of this contract, the Law Firm is entitled to compensation earned and reimbursement for expenses incurred prior to the date of cancellation to the extent the compensation and expenses are otherwise payable under this contract.

Section 6. Certifications and Warrants Required by Law. By agreeing to and signing this contract, the Law Firm makes the following certifications and warrants required by law:

(1) Delinquent Child Support Obligations. Under Section 231.006, Family Code, the vendor or applicant certifies that the individual or business entity named in this contract, bid, or application is not ineligible to receive the specified grant, loan, or payment and acknowledges that this contract may be terminated and payment may be withheld if this certification is inaccurate.

(2) Payment of Debt or Delinquency to the State. The Law Firm represents that the Law Firm owes no debt to the State of Texas, including delinquent taxes, that would make the Law Firm ineligible under Section 403.055, Government Code, to receive payment under this contract. Pursuant to Sections 2107.008 and 2252.903, Government Code, the Law Firm agrees that any payments owing to the Law Firm under this contract may be applied directly toward any debt or delinquency that the Law Firm owes the State of Texas or any agency of the State of Texas, regardless of when it arises, until the debt or delinquency is paid in full.

(3) Dispute Resolution. A dispute arising under this contract is subject to Chapter 2260, Government Code, and use of the dispute resolution process provided by that chapter is required by law.

(4) Boycott of Israel. The Law Firm verifies that the Law Firm does not boycott Israel and will not boycott Israel during the term of the contract.

Section 7. Extent of Representation. The Council and Representative Hunter understand and agree that the Law Firm is being engaged solely to represent Representative Hunter in his capacity as Chair of the House Redistricting Committee, and his staff. The Law Firm does not represent the State of Texas as a whole or any other entity of the State of Texas. The Council and Representative Hunter understand that the Law Firm currently represents clients in other matters adverse to the State of Texas and represents other agencies of the State of Texas in matters not substantially related to the matter covered by this contract. The Council and Representative Hunter agree that the Law Firm may continue such representations and may undertake other representations in the future, whether adverse to the State of Texas or for other agencies of the State of Texas, so long as such matters are not substantially related to this engagement.

The Law Firm understands and agrees that attorneys employed by the Council represent the Texas legislature in accordance with state law, the rules of the Texas House of Representatives, and Council policy. The Law Firm does not have an attorney-client relationship with the Council.

Section 8. General Provisions. The Council's authority to enter into this contract is provided by Chapter 323, Government Code. This contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas.

Payment under this contract may be made only for services described by this contract and actually rendered on or after March 12, 2021, and for reimbursement of related expenses incurred on or after that date.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

8. In responding to these requests, please produce all responsive documents in your possession, custody, or control. This means that you must produce all responsive documents within your actual possession, custody, or control, as well as such documents which you have the legal right to obtain on demand or the practical ability to obtain from a third party, including but not limited to any and all documents that you and your counsel or other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on your behalf have actually reviewed.

9. All references in these requests to an individual person include any and all past or present employees, staff, interns, representatives, designees, attorneys, advisors, consultants, contractors, agents, predecessors in office or position, and all other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on the individual person's behalf or subject to the control of such a person.

11. In construing these document requests, apply the broadest construction, so as to produce the most comprehensive response. Construe the terms "and" and "or" either

13. Documents should be produced in their entirety, without abbreviation, redaction, or expurgation; file folders with tabs or labels identifying documents responsive to these requests should be produced intact with the documents; and documents attached to each other should not be separated.

14. Each document produced should be categorized by the number of the document request in response to which it is produced.

15. No portion of a request may be left unanswered because an objection is raised to another part of that request. If you object to any portion of a document request, you must state with specificity the grounds of the objection. Any ground not stated will be waived.

16. For any document withheld from production on a claim of privilege or work product protection, provide a written privilege log identifying each document individually and containing all information required by Rule 45(e)(2)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including a description of the basis of the claimed privilege and all information necessary for the United States to assess the claim of privilege.

17. If you contend that it would be unduly burdensome to obtain and provide all of the documents called for in response to any document request or subsection thereof, then in response to the appropriate request: (a) produce all such documents as are available without undertaking what you contend to be an unduly burdensome request; (b) describe with

particularity the efforts made by you or on your behalf to produce such documents; and (c) state with particularity the grounds upon which you contend that additional efforts to produce such documents would be unduly burdensome.

18. If any requested document or other potentially relevant document is subject to destruction under any document retention or destruction program, the documents should be exempted from any scheduled destruction and should not be destroyed until the conclusion of this lawsuit or unless otherwise permitted by court order.

19. In the event that a responsive document has been destroyed or has passed out of your possession, custody, or control, please provide the following information with respect to each such document: its title, date, author(s), sender(s), recipient(s), subject matter, the circumstances under which it has become unavailable, and, if known, its current location and custodian.

20. These requests are continuing in nature. Your response must be supplemented and any additional responsive material disclosed if responsive material becomes available after you serve your response. You must also amend your responses to these requests if you learn that an answer is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

ATTACHMENT A – SUBPOENA FOR DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS

Pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, you are commanded to produce to the United States of America the documents and electronically stored information described below in your possession, custody, or control.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. "Document" is defined to be synonymous in meaning and scope as the term "document" is used under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and as the phrase "writings and recordings" is defined in Rule 1001 of the Federal Rules of Evidence and includes, but is not limited to, any computer files, memoranda, notes, letters, emails, printouts, instant messages, ephemeral messages (such as Slack, Signal, Snapchat, Telegram, and Wickr), social media messages, text messages, or databases, and any handwritten, typewritten, printed, electronically-recorded, taped, graphic, machine-readable, or other material, of whatever nature and in whatever form, including all non-identical copies and drafts thereof, and all copies bearing any notation or mark not found on the original.

2. "Legislator" means a past or present elected member of the Texas House of Representatives ("Texas House") or the Texas Senate, including such member's past or present employees, legislative office staff, district office staff, committee staff, caucus staff, campaign staff, interns, representatives, designees, attorneys, advisors, consultants, contractors, agents, or other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on the member's behalf or subject to the member's control or on behalf of any committee or other body of which the elected member is a member.

3. "Member of the U.S. House of Representatives" means a past or present elected member of the United States House of Representatives, including such member's past or present employees, legislative office staff, district office staff, committee staff, caucus staff, campaign staff, interns, representatives, designees, attorneys, advisors, consultants, contractors, agents, or other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on the member's behalf or subject to the member's control or on behalf of any committee or other body of which the elected member is a member.

4. "Redistricting" means any consideration of the alignment of district boundaries for an entire legislative body, a single legislative district, or districts within a geographic area. Unless otherwise specified, the term does not include consideration of the alignment of district boundaries for the Texas Senate or the Texas State Board of Education.

5. "Relating to" means referring to, regarding, consisting of, concerning, pertaining to, reflecting, evidencing, describing, constituting, mentioning, or being in any way logically or factually connected with the matter discussed, including any connection, direct or indirect, whatsoever with the requested topic.

6. "Senate Bill 6" means the legislation setting forth the district boundaries for the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives that Governor Greg Abbott signed into law on October 25, 2021. See S.B. 6, 87th Leg., 3d Spec. Sess. (Tex. 2021).

7. "House Bill 1" means the legislation setting forth the district boundaries for the Texas House that Governor Abbott signed into law on October 25, 2021. See H.B. 1, 87th Leg., 3d Spec. Sess. (Tex. 2021).

8. In responding to these requests, please produce all responsive documents in your possession, custody, or control. This means that you must produce all responsive documents within your actual possession, custody, or control, as well as such documents which you have the legal right to obtain on demand or the practical ability to obtain from a third party, including but not limited to any and all documents that you and your counsel or other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on your behalf have actually reviewed.

9. All references in these requests to an individual person include any and all past or present employees, staff, interns, representatives, designees, attorneys, advisors, consultants, contractors, agents, predecessors in office or position, and all other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on the individual person's behalf or subject to the control of such a person.

10. All references in these requests to an entity, governmental entity, or any other type of organization include its past or present officers, executives, directors, employees, staff, interns, representatives, designees, attorneys, advisors, consultants, contractors, agents, and all other persons or entities acting or purporting to act on behalf of such an organization or subject to its control.

11. In construing these document requests, apply the broadest construction, so as to produce the most comprehensive response. Construe the terms "and" and "or" either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside that scope. Words used in the singular include the plural.

12. Words or terms used herein have the same intent and meaning regardless of whether the words or terms are depicted in lowercase or uppercase letters.

13. Documents should be produced in their entirety, without abbreviation, redaction, or expurgation; file folders with tabs or labels identifying documents responsive to these requests should be produced intact with the documents; and documents attached to each other should not be separated.

14. Each document produced should be categorized by the number of the document request in response to which it is produced.

15. No portion of a request may be left unanswered because an objection is raised to another part of that request. If you object to any portion of a document request, you must state with specificity the grounds of the objection. Any ground not stated will be waived.

16. For any document withheld from production on a claim of privilege or work product protection, provide a written privilege log identifying each document individually and containing all information required by Rule 45(e)(2)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including a description of the basis of the claimed privilege and all information necessary for the United States to assess the claim of privilege.

17. If you contend that it would be unduly burdensome to obtain and provide all of the documents called for in response to any document request or subsection thereof, then in response to the appropriate request: (a) produce all such documents as are available without undertaking what you contend to be an unduly burdensome request; (b) describe with

particularity the efforts made by you or on your behalf to produce such documents; and (c) state with particularity the grounds upon which you contend that additional efforts to produce such documents would be unduly burdensome.

18. If any requested document or other potentially relevant document is subject to destruction under any document retention or destruction program, the documents should be exempted from any scheduled destruction and should not be destroyed until the conclusion of this lawsuit or unless otherwise permitted by court order.

19. In the event that a responsive document has been destroyed or has passed out of your possession, custody, or control, please provide the following information with respect to each such document: its title, date, author(s), sender(s), recipient(s), subject matter, the circumstances under which it has become unavailable, and, if known, its current location and custodian.

20. These requests are continuing in nature. Your response must be supplemented and any additional responsive material disclosed if responsive material becomes available after you serve your response. You must also amend your responses to these requests if you learn that an answer is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect.

21. Unless otherwise specified, all document requests concern the period of time from January 1, 2019, to the present.

OBJECTIONS RELEVANT TO EACH REQUEST

Thomas Bryan asserts that each of the following objections applies specifically to each request below. In the interest of brevity, these objections are offered here to avoid unnecessary repetition of objections to definitions, scope, and similar issues that afflict each request. These objections are as follows:

Mr. Bryan is a consulting-only expert hired by Butler Snow LLP to assist it in representing its clients at the Texas Legislature. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D) prohibits a party from discovering facts known or opinions held by an expert who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(4)(D). See Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Pure Air on the Lake Ltd. P'ship, 154 F.R.D. 202, 208 (N.D. Ind. 1993) ("Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure cannot be utilized for obtaining an expert's files where Rule 26(b)(4) remains the limitation on discoverability."). Documents in Mr. Bryan's possession and information known to him are protected from discovery under this rule. Additional privileges, including but not limited to, attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and deliberative process may also be implicated by DOJ's requests, and Mr. Bryan anticipates asserting all applicable privileges implicated by the DOJ's requests.

Given Mr. Bryan's role as a consulting expert, and that the requested production directly relates to legislative activities, much of the requested production is subject to legislative privilege. That privilege traces its roots to before the founding of the Republic, as it has "taproots in the Parliamentary struggles of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries." Tenney v. Brandhove, 341 U.S. 372 (1951). The privilege protects not only legislators, but their staff and aides as well. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 615-16 (1972). Here, DOJ's attempt to compel disclosure of Mr. Bryan's "thought processes or [his] communications . . . with . . . legislators" falls squarely within the well-established contours of legislative privilege. Perez v. Abbott, No. 5:11-cv-360, 2014 WL 3495414 (W.D. Tex. July 11, 2014).

The inadvertent production or disclosure of any privileged documents or information shall not constitute or be deemed to be a waiver of any applicable privilege with respect to such document or information (or the contents or subject matter thereof) or with respect to any other such document or discovery now or hereafter requested or provided. Mr. Bryan reserves the right not to produce documents that are in part protected by privilege, except on a redacted basis, and to require the return of any document (and all copies thereof) inadvertently produced. Mr. Bryan likewise does not waive the right to object, on any and all grounds, to (1) the evidentiary use of documents produced in response to these requests; and (2) discovery requests relating to those documents.

There is currently no protective order in place between the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ") and Mr. Bryan. To the extent that documents may be identified that are discoverable but require additional protections to prevent public disclosure, any such documents that are identified will be withheld and described in the responses, with the clarification that such production will first require entry of a protective order before the documents may be disclosed.

The Federal Rules provide that the "attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena." Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1). While nonparty subpoenas are governed by Rule 45, they are also subject to the parameters established by Rule 26. Camoco, LLC v. Leyva, 333 F.R.D. 603, 607 (W.D. Tex. 2019) ("As with any other forms of discovery, the scope of discovery through a Rule 45 subpoena is governed by Rule 26(b)."). Therefore, the discovery sought here is still limited to "any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

The twin demands for relevancy and proportionality "are related but distinct requirements." Samsung Electronics Am., Inc. v. Chung, 321 F.R.D. 250, 279 (N.D. Tex. 2017). Thus, if the information sought is irrelevant to the party's claims or defenses, "it is not necessary to determine whether it would be proportional if it were relevant." Walker v. Pioneer Prod. Servs., Inc., No. CV 15-0645, 2016 WL 1244510, at *3 (E.D. La. Mar. 30, 2016). Conversely, "relevance alone does not translate into automatic discoverability" because "[a]n assessment of proportionality is essential." Motorola Sols., Inc. v. Hytera Commc'ns Corp., 365 F. Supp. 3d 916, 924 (N.D. Ill. 2019). Accordingly, Mr. Bryan objects to these requests to the extent that the information sought is irrelevant or disproportionate.

A portion of the requested production is also irrelevant to DOJ's claims and is thus identified individually below. But a much larger portion of the request is not proportional to the needs of the case. The proportionality language was inserted into Rule 26(b) in 2015 "to emphasize the need for proportionality," Prasad v. George Washington Univ., 323 F.R.D. 88, 91 (D.D.C. 2017), and "highlight[] its significance," Mannina v. D.C., 334 F.R.D. 336, 339 n.4 (D.D.C. 2020); see also Chief Justice John Roberts, 2015 Year-End Report on the Federal Judiciary at 6, Supreme Court of the United States,[1] ("Rule 26(b)(1) crystalizes the concept of reasonable limits on discovery through increased reliance on the common-sense concept of proportionality[.]"). As the Advisory Committee explained, this addition of overt "proportional" language was meant to better reflect the intent of the 1983 amendments, which were designed "to deal with the problem of over-discovery." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b) advisory committee's note (2015) (quoting the 1983 advisory notes). However, this "clear focus of the 1983 provisions may have been softened, although inadvertently, by the amendments made in 1993." Id. Thus, the 2015 amendment sought to "restore[] the proportionality factors to their original place in defining the scope of discovery" and reinforce the parties' obligation "to consider these factors in making discovery requests, responses, or objections." Id. As fully restored, the proportionality requirement "relieves parties from the burden of taking unreasonable steps to ferret out every relevant document." Virginia Dep't of Corr. v. Jordan, 921 F.3d 180, 189 (4th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 140 S. Ct. 672 (2019). Accordingly, Mr. Bryan objects to the DOJ's subpoena to the extent that it falls short of this more stringent proportionality standard.

Mr. Bryan objects to the production of any documents or communications created after October 25, 2021, because any documents created after the passage of HB1 and SB6 are irrelevant to the United States' claims.

These responses and objections are made without waiving any further objections to, or admitting the relevancy or materiality of, any of the information or documents requested. All answers are given without prejudice to Mr. Bryan's right to object to the discovery of any documents, facts, or information discovered after the date hereof. Likewise, these responses and objections are not intended to be, and shall not be construed as, agreement with the DOJ's characterization of any facts, circumstances, or legal obligations. Mr. Bryan reserves the right to contest any such characterization as inaccurate and object to the Requests insofar as they contain any express or implied assumptions of fact or law concerning matters at issue in this litigation.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Mr. Bryan objects to the definition of "document" to the extent that it calls for documents protected from disclosure by legislative privilege, attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege, deliberative process privilege, or any other applicable privilege.

Mr. Bryan objects to the definitions of "Legislator," "Member of the U.S. House of Representatives," "individual person," "entity," and "organization," see ¶¶ 2–3, 9–10, because they are overbroad and inaccurate. They improperly group all persons and entities having any relation to a particular person or entity, when in fact the particular person or entity is independent of those related persons or entities. Mr. Bryan objects to the implied application to any related persons or entities without specific enumeration.

Mr. Bryan further objects to the time period in Instruction 21, which defines the relevant time period for these responses as beginning on January 1, 2019. The claims and issues in this litigation pertain to redistricted maps that were drawn based upon data received from the United States Census Bureau in the late summer of 2021 and finalized in the fall of 2021. Accordingly, it is unreasonable and disproportionate to the needs of this case to look back to January of 2019 for documents responsive to these requests.

RESPONSES

Document Request 1: All documents relating to any redistricting proposal for the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives or the Texas House, including but not limited to House Bill 1, Senate Bill 6, and any other Congressional or House redistricting proposal drawn, discussed, or considered. This request includes but is not limited to:

a. the origination(s) or source(s) of any such redistricting proposal;

b. the impetus, rationale, background, or motivation for any such redistricting proposal;

c. all drafts in the development or revision of any such redistricting proposal, including but not limited to shapefiles, files or datasets used in mapping software, each RED report, each

PAR report, demographic data (including but not limited to Citizen Voting Age Population, Hispanic Citizen Voting Age Population, Black Citizen Voting Age Population, Voting Age Population, Hispanic Voting Age Population, and Black Voting Age Population), election data (including but not limited to reconstituted election analyses), and files related to precinct names, precinct lines, split precincts, partisan indexes, population shifts, population deviations, voter registration, Spanish Surname Voter Registration, voter affiliation, Spanish Surname Voter Turnout, or changing census geography;

d. the pairing of any incumbents in any such redistricting proposal;

e. any redistricting amendment, whether partial or total, to each such proposal;

f. negotiations regarding any redistricting proposal; and

g. all calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses, from any source, relating to the effect or impact, of any kind—including on (1) Texas minority voters, (2) existing or emerging minority opportunity districts, or (3) voter turnout (including Spanish Surname Voter Turnout)—that could result from the implementation of any such redistricting proposal.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it calls for the production of documents that are subject to legislative privilege, attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or are protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501. In particular, requesting analyses "from any source" is likely to encompass documents that are protected by the legislative privilege or the consulting only expert privilege. Requesting "the origination(s)" and "the impetus, rationale, background, or motivation" of certain legislative proposals would impermissibly expose thought processes and mental impressions, which are also subject to legislative privilege. Requesting analyses that were "considered by" the Legislature, "draft in the development or revision of" redistricting proposals, "negotiations" and "calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses" would be subject to legislative privilege for the same reason.

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request because it asks him to gather publicly available documents that are equally accessible to the United States. Insofar as the request generally seeks shapefiles, data sets, reconstituted election analyses, amendments, information concerning the pairing of incumbents, and other general information, Mr. Bryan directs DOJ to the Texas Legislative Council's Capitol Data Portal, https://data.capitol.texas.gov/organization/tlc, where such information may be found. Insofar as the request seeks such information specifically considered by any legislator or staff, the request calls for information subject to the legislative privilege. To the extent the request seeks information specific to Mr. Bryan, the request calls for information protected from disclosure under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D).

Lastly, insofar as the request seeks legal analysis concerning the "effect or impact" of redistricting proposals on "minority voters," "existing or emerging minority opportunity districts," or "voter turnout," it seeks information that may be subject to the attorney-client privilege or constitute attorney work product.

Document Request 2: All documents relating to the redistricting process for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives, including but not limited to planning, timing, hearings, outreach, publicity, public or expert participation, deadlines, limitations, staffing, and persons or entities involved.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. The request seeks documents relating to the "planning" and "timing" of the redistricting process. These go to mental impressions and legislative strategy, which are at the core of the legislative privilege. Mr. Bryan objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), attorney work-product privilege, deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because it asks him to gather publicly available documents that are equally accessible to Plaintiff. Insofar as the request seeks information on the attendance and date of hearings, and persons and entities involved, such information may be found at the Texas Senate and Texas House of Representatives websites, as well as on the Texas Legislature Online ("TLO") website. See https://senate.texas.gov/index.php (Senate); https://house.texas.gov/ (House); https://capitol.texas.gov/Home.aspx (TLO).

Document Request 3: All documents relating to voting patterns in Texas elections with respect to race, ethnicity, or language minority status, including but not limited to any calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses.

Response: Insofar as this request asks for calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses used as part of the redistricting process, Mr. Bryan objects on the basis that such a request calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. Documents used for the purpose of formulating legislation are at the core of the legislative privilege. Mr. Bryan objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because it is facially overbroad. It calls for "all" documents relating to voting patterns, without any temporal limitation (other than the one included in the instructions) or further specification. For this reason, documents relating to voting patterns in Texas may well be irrelevant to the United States' claims—which are limited to several districts in the Texas House of Representatives map and Congressional map.

Document Request 4: All documents relating to whether House Bill 1, Senate Bill 6, or any other redistricting proposal drawn, discussed, or considered with respect to the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives complies with the Voting Rights Act, including but not limited to any calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because, by its very nature, it calls for documents that are subject to the attorney-client privilege, the legislative privilege, and constitute attorney work product. Legal analysis concerning whether HB1, SB6, or other related redistricting bills comply with the VRA will necessarily implicate these privileges. Further, communications between legislators and their staffs are privileged communications covered by the legislative privilege.

Finally, Mr. Bryan objects to this request on the basis of the consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D) because any documents in his possession are necessarily pursuant to his role as a consulting expert to Butler Snow LLP.

Document Request 5: All documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives exchanged between, among, with, or within the Office of the Governor, the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, the Office of the Secretary of State, the Office of the Attorney General, any legislator, the House Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Conference Committee regarding Senate Bill 6 or members thereof, the Texas Legislative Council, any member of the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate for the Texas House, any campaign to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any campaign for the Texas House, any national political party, any state political party organization, any local political party organization, any national congressional campaign committee, any national organization dedicated to supporting state legislative candidates, the National Republican Redistricting Trust, the National Democratic Redistricting Committee, any political action committee, any lobbyist, any political activist or operative, any other governmental entity, any local elected official in Texas, any consultant, any expert, any law firm or attorney, any vendor, any other political or community group or organization, or any member of the public.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will necessarily apply to documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are covered by the legislative privilege. First, with respect to communications between legislators, it is clear that communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991). And requesting communications between the office of the Governor, the office of the Representative, the office of the Secretary of State, and other similar parties, their staff or agents, encompasses documents that are protected by legislative privilege. Indeed, the Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized that "officials outside the legislative branch are entitled to legislative immunity when they perform legislative functions."

Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)).

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request because it calls for documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case. Specifically, it is unclear without further specification why documents relating to redistricting exchanged between the individuals and the many third parties listed on page 8 of the United States' requests (that is, candidates, political parties, lobbyists, and the rest) would be relevant.

Request 6: All other documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives from July 1, 2021, to the present, including but not limited to redistricting criteria, public statements, correspondence, calendar invitations, scheduling emails, meeting minutes, agendas, attendance sheets, call logs, notes, presentations, studies, advocacy, letters, or other communications.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will necessarily apply to make documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because the request calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. Among others, documents concerning "presentations," "redistricting criteria," and "meeting minutes" go directly to legislators' mental impressions and motivations concerning pending legislation, which is clearly covered by the privilege. Of course, communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991).

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Request 7: All documents relating to enumerations or estimates by the U.S. Census Bureau or Texas Demographic Center related to population changes, race, ethnicity, language minority status, or United States citizenship that were exchanged between, among, with, or within the Office of the Governor, the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, the Office of the Secretary of State, the Office of the Attorney General, any legislator, the House Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Conference Committee regarding Senate Bill 6 or members thereof, the Texas Legislative Council, any member of the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate for the Texas House, any candidate to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any campaign for the Texas House, any campaign to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any national political party, any state political party organization, any local political party organization, any national congressional campaign committee, any national organization dedicated to supporting state legislative candidates, the National Republican Redistricting Trust, the National Democratic Redistricting Committee, any political action committee, any lobbyist, any political activist or operative, any other governmental entity, any consultant, any expert, any law firm or attorney, any vendor, any group or organization, or any member of the public.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating to enumerations or estimates by the U.S. Census Bureau or Texas Demographic Center related to population changes," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will likely apply to make documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are covered by the legislative privilege. First, with respect to communications between legislators, it is clear that communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991). And requesting communications between the office of the Governor, the office of the Representative, the office of the Secretary of State, and other similar parties, their staff or agents, encompasses documents that are protected by legislative privilege. Indeed, the Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized that "officials outside the legislative branch are entitled to legislative immunity when they perform legislative functions." Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)).

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Bryan also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case. Specifically, it is unclear without further specification why documents relating to demographic enumerations or estimates exchanged between the many third parties listed on page 8 of the United States' requests (that is, candidates, political parties, lobbyists, and the rest) would be relevant.

Mr. Bryan further objects on the basis that much the information sought by this request may be made publicly available by the U.S. Census Bureau and the Texas Demographic Center.

Request 8: All documents relating to payment for services; agreements of representation, consultation, employment, services, confidentiality, or common interest; or any other type of contract relating to redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives that include any of the following individuals or entities: Adam Foltz, Chris Gober, The Gober Group, any consultant, any political operative, any expert, the Office of the Texas Attorney General, any other law firm, any other attorney, any other vendor, or any other person or entity.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it is overbroad and harassing. Although it appears to be bounded by specific persons and entities, the end of the request provides that the request applies to "any other attorney," "any other vendor," or "any other person or entity." The net effect is that the initial limitations are swallowed by the sheer breadth of a request that asks for "all documents" that "[relate] to redistricting" and that include "any other person or entity." Accordingly, this request is overly broad and conducting a search of this scope and breadth without any reasonable limitation is disproportionate to the needs of this case. Further, Mr. Bryan is not a party to this litigation, and should not be required to produce, for example, "all documents" that "[relate] to redistricting" that include "any political operative." Such a facially overbroad requests create an undue burden. Wiwa v. Royal Dutch Petroleum Co., 392 F.3d 812, 818 (5th Cir. 2004).

In addition, Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege and the attorney-client privilege. Documents relating to services provided by third parties for a legislative purpose are subject to the legislative privilege. Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)). And documents relating to Mr. Bryan and any legal representation is subject to the attorney-client privilege.

Mr. Bryan also objects on the basis that this request does not list an end date. See Doe v. McMillan, 412 U.S. 306, 313–14 (1973). Any contracts or other agreements entered into after the filing of this complaint would necessarily be irrelevant.

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney work-product privilege, the consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Request 9: All non-privileged documents relating to the instant lawsuit or preceding investigation of Texas by the U.S. Department of Justice.

Response: Mr. Bryan objects to this request because it is overbroad. It is unclear from the face of this request why "all documents relating" to this lawsuit or the United States' preceding investigation would be relevant to the United States' claims. And insofar as these documents relate to the United States' investigation, these are documents that are more likely to be within the care, custody, or control of the United States. If such materials are more commonly held by others, including state and local law enforcement agencies, production should be requested from them rather than from an individual legislator. Given the availability of these documents from other sources, the burden of requiring Mr. Bryan to collect them far exceeds any benefit that might result.

See Virginia Dep't of Corr. v. Jordan, 921 F.3d 180, 189 (4th Cir. 2019) (stating that courts should "consider what information is available to the requesting party from other sources" when analyzing "the benefit side of the ledger").

Mr. Bryan also objects on the basis that this request does not list an end date. See Doe v. McMillan, 412 U.S. 306, 313–14 (1973). Any documents originating after the filing of this complaint would necessarily be irrelevant.

Mr. Bryan further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

OBJECTIONS RELEVANT TO EACH REQUEST

Eric Wienckowski asserts that each of the following objections applies specifically to each request below. In the interest of brevity, these objections are offered here to avoid unnecessary repetition of objections to definitions, scope, and similar issues that afflict each request. These objections are as follows:

Mr. Wienckowski is a consulting-only expert who was hired by Butler Snow LLP's consulting-only expert to assist Butler Snow LLP in representing its clients at the Texas Legislature. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D) prohibits a party from discovering facts known or opinions held by an expert who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(4)(D). See Hartford Fire Ins. Co. v. Pure Air on the Lake Ltd. P'ship, 154 F.R.D. 202, 208 (N.D. Ind. 1993) ("Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure cannot be utilized for obtaining an expert's files where Rule 26(b)(4) remains the limitation on discoverability."). Documents in Mr. Wienckowski's possession and information known to him are protected from discovery under this rule. Additional privileges, including but not limited to, attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and deliberative process may also be implicated by DOJ's requests, and Mr. Wienckowski anticipates asserting all applicable privileges implicated by the DOJ's requests.

Given Mr. Wienckowski's role as a consulting expert, and that the requested production directly relates to legislative activities, much of the requested production is subject to legislative privilege. That privilege traces its roots to before the founding of the Republic, as it has "taproots in the Parliamentary struggles of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries." Tenney v. Brandhove, 341 U.S. 372 (1951). The privilege protects not only legislators, but their staff and aides as well. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 615-16 (1972). Here, DOJ's attempt to compel disclosure of Mr. Wienckowski's "thought processes or [his] communications . . . with . . . legislators" falls squarely within the well-established contours of legislative privilege. Perez v. Abbott, No. 5:11-cv-360, 2014 WL 3495414 (W.D. Tex. July 11, 2014).

The inadvertent production or disclosure of any privileged documents or information shall not constitute or be deemed to be a waiver of any applicable privilege with respect to such document or information (or the contents or subject matter thereof) or with respect to any other such document or discovery now or hereafter requested or provided. Mr. Wienckowski reserves the right not to produce documents that are in part protected by privilege, except on a redacted basis, and to require the return of any document (and all copies thereof) inadvertently produced. Mr. Wienckowski likewise does not waive the right to object, on any and all grounds, to (1) the evidentiary use of documents produced in response to these requests; and (2) discovery requests relating to those documents.

There is currently no protective order in place between the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ") and Mr. Wienckowski. To the extent that documents may be identified that are discoverable but require additional protections to prevent public disclosure, any such documents that are identified will be withheld and described in the responses, with the clarification that such production will first require entry of a protective order before the documents may be disclosed.

The Federal Rules provide that the "attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena." Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1). While nonparty subpoenas are governed by Rule 45, they are also subject to the parameters established by Rule 26. Camoco, LLC v. Leyva, 333 F.R.D. 603, 607 (W.D. Tex. 2019) ("As with any other forms of discovery, the scope of discovery through a Rule 45 subpoena is governed by Rule 26(b)."). Therefore, the discovery sought here is still limited to "any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

The twin demands for relevancy and proportionality "are related but distinct requirements." Samsung Electronics Am., Inc. v. Chung, 321 F.R.D. 250, 279 (N.D. Tex. 2017). Thus, if the information sought is irrelevant to the party's claims or defenses, "it is not necessary to determine whether it would be proportional if it were relevant." Walker v. Pioneer Prod. Servs., Inc., No. CV 15-0645, 2016 WL 1244510, at *3 (E.D. La. Mar. 30, 2016). Conversely, "relevance alone does not translate into automatic discoverability" because "[a]n assessment of proportionality is essential." Motorola Sols., Inc. v. Hytera Commc'ns Corp., 365 F. Supp. 3d 916, 924 (N.D. Ill. 2019). Accordingly, Mr. Wienckowski objects to these requests to the extent that the information sought is irrelevant or disproportionate.

A portion of the requested production is also irrelevant to DOJ's claims and is thus identified individually below. But a much larger portion of the request is not proportional to the needs of the case. The proportionality language was inserted into Rule 26(b) in 2015 "to emphasize the need for proportionality," Prasad v. George Washington Univ., 323 F.R.D. 88, 91 (D.D.C. 2017), and "highlight[] its significance," Mannina v. D.C., 334 F.R.D. 336, 339 n.4 (D.D.C. 2020); see also Chief Justice John Roberts, 2015 Year-End Report on the Federal Judiciary at 6, Supreme Court of the United States,[1] ("Rule 26(b)(1) crystalizes the concept of reasonable limits on discovery through increased reliance on the common-sense concept of proportionality[.]"). As the Advisory Committee explained, this addition of overt "proportional" language was meant to better reflect the intent of the 1983 amendments, which were designed "to deal with the problem of over-discovery." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b) advisory committee's note (2015) (quoting the 1983 advisory notes). However, this "clear focus of the 1983 provisions may have been softened, although inadvertently, by the amendments made in 1993." Id. Thus, the 2015 amendment sought to "restore[] the proportionality factors to their original place in defining the scope of discovery" and reinforce the parties' obligation "to consider these factors in making discovery requests, responses, or objections." Id. As fully restored, the proportionality requirement "relieves parties from the burden of taking unreasonable steps to ferret out every relevant document." Virginia Dep't of Corr. v. Jordan, 921 F.3d 180, 189 (4th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 140 S. Ct. 672 (2019). Accordingly, Mr. Wienckowski objects to the DOJ's subpoena to the extent that it falls short of this more stringent proportionality standard.

Mr. Wienckowski objects to the production of any documents or communications created after October 25, 2021, because any documents created after the passage of HB1 and SB6 are irrelevant to the United States' claims.

These responses and objections are made without waiving any further objections to, or admitting the relevancy or materiality of, any of the information or documents requested. All answers are given without prejudice to Mr. Wienckowski's right to object to the discovery of any documents, facts, or information discovered after the date hereof. Likewise, these responses and objections are not intended to be, and shall not be construed as, agreement with the DOJ's characterization of any facts, circumstances, or legal obligations. Mr. Wienckowski reserves the right to contest any such characterization as inaccurate and object to the Requests insofar as they contain any express or implied assumptions of fact or law concerning matters at issue in this litigation.

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Mr. Wienckowski objects to the definition of "document" to the extent that it calls for documents protected from disclosure by legislative privilege, attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege, deliberative process privilege, or any other applicable privilege.

Mr. Wienckowski objects to the definitions of "Legislator," "Member of the U.S. House of Representatives," "individual person," "entity," and "organization," see ¶¶ 2–3, 9–10, because they are overbroad and inaccurate. They improperly group all persons and entities having any relation to a particular person or entity, when in fact the particular person or entity is independent of those related persons or entities. Mr. Wienckowski objects to the implied application to any related persons or entities without specific enumeration.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to the time period in Instruction 21, which defines the relevant time period for these responses as beginning on January 1, 2019. The claims and issues in this litigation pertain to redistricted maps that were drawn based upon data received from the United States Census Bureau in the late summer of 2021 and finalized in the fall of 2021. Accordingly, it is unreasonable and disproportionate to the needs of this case to look back to January of 2019 for documents responsive to these requests.

e. any redistricting amendment, whether partial or total, to each such proposal;

f. negotiations regarding any redistricting proposal; and

g. all calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses, from any source, relating to the effect or impact, of any kind—including on (1) Texas minority voters, (2) existing or emerging minority opportunity districts, or (3) voter turnout (including Spanish Surname Voter Turnout)—that could result from the implementation of any such redistricting proposal.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it calls for the production of documents that are subject to legislative privilege, attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or are protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501. In particular, requesting analyses "from any source" is likely to encompass documents that are protected by the legislative privilege or the consulting only expert privilege. Requesting "the origination(s)" and "the impetus, rationale, background, or motivation" of certain legislative proposals would impermissibly expose thought processes and mental impressions, which are also subject to legislative privilege. Requesting analyses that were "considered by" the Legislature, "draft in the development or revision of" redistricting proposals, "negotiations" and "calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses" would be subject to legislative privilege for the same reason.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request because it asks him to gather publicly available documents that are equally accessible to the United States. Insofar as the request generally seeks shapefiles, data sets, reconstituted election analyses, amendments, information concerning the pairing of incumbents, and other general information, Mr. Wienckowski directs DOJ to the Texas Legislative Council's Capitol Data Portal, https://data.capitol.texas.gov/organization/tlc, where such information may be found. Insofar as the request seeks such information specifically considered by any legislator or staff, the request calls for information subject to the legislative privilege. To the extent the request seeks information specific to Mr. Wienckowski, the request calls for information protected from disclosure under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D).

Lastly, insofar as the request seeks legal analysis concerning the "effect or impact" of redistricting proposals on "minority voters," "existing or emerging minority opportunity districts," or "voter turnout," it seeks information that may be subject to the attorney-client privilege or constitute attorney work product.

Document Request 2: All documents relating to the redistricting process for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives, including but not limited to planning, timing, hearings, outreach, publicity, public or expert participation, deadlines, limitations, staffing, and persons or entities involved.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. The request seeks documents relating to the "planning" and "timing" of the redistricting process. These go to mental impressions and legislative strategy, which are at the core of the legislative privilege. Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), attorney work-product privilege, deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because it asks him to gather publicly available documents that are equally accessible to Plaintiff. Insofar as the request seeks information on the attendance and date of hearings, and persons and entities involved, such information may be found at the Texas Senate and Texas House of Representatives websites, as well as on the Texas Legislature Online ("TLO") website. See https://senate.texas.gov/index.php (Senate); https://house.texas.gov/ (House); https://capitol.texas.gov/Home.aspx (TLO).

Document Request 3: All documents relating to voting patterns in Texas elections with respect to race, ethnicity, or language minority status, including but not limited to any calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses.

Response: Insofar as this request asks for calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses used as part of the redistricting process, Mr. Wienckowski objects on the basis that such a request calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. Documents used for the purpose of formulating legislation are at the core of the legislative privilege. Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because it is facially overbroad. It calls for "all" documents relating to voting patterns, without any temporal limitation (other than the one included in the instructions) or further specification. For this reason, documents relating to voting patterns in Texas may well be irrelevant to the United States' claims—which are limited to several districts in the Texas House of Representatives map and Congressional map.

Document Request 4: All documents relating to whether House Bill 1, Senate Bill 6, or any other redistricting proposal drawn, discussed, or considered with respect to the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives complies with the Voting Rights Act, including but not limited to any calculations, reports, audits, estimates, projections, or other analyses.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because, by its very nature, it calls for documents that are subject to the attorney-client privilege, the legislative privilege, and constitute attorney work product. Legal analysis concerning whether HB1, SB6, or other related redistricting bills comply with the VRA will necessarily implicate these privileges. Further, communications between legislators and their staffs are privileged communications covered by the legislative privilege.

Finally, Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request on the basis of the consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D) because any documents in his possession are necessarily pursuant to his role as a consulting expert to Butler Snow LLP.

Document Request 5: All documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives exchanged between, among, with, or within the Office of the Governor, the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, the Office of the Secretary of State, the Office of the Attorney General, any legislator, the House Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Conference Committee regarding Senate Bill 6 or members thereof, the Texas Legislative Council, any member of the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate for the Texas House, any campaign to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any campaign for the Texas House, any national political party, any state political party organization, any local political party organization, any national congressional campaign committee, any national organization dedicated to supporting state legislative candidates, the National Republican Redistricting Trust, the National Democratic Redistricting Committee, any political action committee, any lobbyist, any political activist or operative, any other governmental entity, any local elected official in Texas, any consultant, any expert, any law firm or attorney, any vendor, any other political or community group or organization, or any member of the public.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will necessarily apply to documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are covered by the legislative privilege. First, with respect to communications between legislators, it is clear that communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991). And requesting communications between the office of the Governor, the office of the Representative, the office of the Secretary of State, and other similar parties, their staff or agents, encompasses documents that are protected by legislative privilege. Indeed, the Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized that "officials outside the legislative branch are entitled to legislative immunity when they perform legislative functions." Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)).

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request because it calls for documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case. Specifically, it is unclear without further specification why documents relating to redistricting exchanged between the individuals and the many third parties listed on page 8 of the United States' requests (that is, candidates, political parties, lobbyists, and the rest) would be relevant.

Request 6: All other documents relating to redistricting for the Texas House or the Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives from July 1, 2021, to the present, including but not limited to redistricting criteria, public statements, correspondence, calendar invitations, scheduling emails, meeting minutes, agendas, attendance sheets, call logs, notes, presentations, studies, advocacy, letters, or other communications.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will necessarily apply to make documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because the request calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege. Among others, documents concerning "presentations," "redistricting criteria," and "meeting minutes" go directly to legislators' mental impressions and motivations concerning pending legislation, which is clearly covered by the privilege. Of course, communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991).

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting only expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Request 7: All documents relating to enumerations or estimates by the U.S. Census Bureau or Texas Demographic Center related to population changes, race, ethnicity, language minority status, or United States citizenship that were exchanged between, among, with, or within the Office of the Governor, the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, the Office of the Secretary of State, the Office of the Attorney General, any legislator, the House Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting or members thereof, the Conference Committee regarding Senate Bill 6 or members thereof, the Texas Legislative Council, any member of the U.S. House of Representatives, any candidate for the Texas House, any candidate to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any campaign for the Texas House, any campaign to represent Texas in the U.S. House of Representatives, any national political party, any state political party organization, any local political party organization, any national congressional campaign committee, any national organization dedicated to supporting state legislative candidates, the National Republican Redistricting Trust, the National Democratic Redistricting Committee, any political action committee, any lobbyist, any political activist or operative, any other governmental entity, any consultant, any expert, any law firm or attorney, any vendor, any group or organization, or any member of the public.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it is overbroad. The request calls for "all documents relating to enumerations or estimates by the U.S. Census Bureau or Texas Demographic Center related to population changes," without any qualifications (other than the listed recipients). That is an extremely broad request and will likely apply to make documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are covered by the legislative privilege. First, with respect to communications between legislators, it is clear that communications and deliberations by legislators about pending bills are "legislative acts" protected by legislative privilege. See Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 624-25 (1972); Hughes v. Tarrant County, 948 F.2d 918, 921 (5th Cir. 1991). And requesting communications between the office of the Governor, the office of the Representative, the office of the Secretary of State, and other similar parties, their staff or agents, encompasses documents that are protected by legislative privilege. Indeed, the Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized that "officials outside the legislative branch are entitled to legislative immunity when they perform legislative functions." Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)).

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects to this request because it calls for documents that are irrelevant to the United States' claims in this case. Specifically, it is unclear without further specification why documents relating to demographic enumerations or estimates exchanged between the many third parties listed on page 8 of the United States' requests (that is, candidates, political parties, lobbyists, and the rest) would be relevant.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects on the basis that much the information sought by this request may be made publicly available by the U.S. Census Bureau and the Texas Demographic Center.

Request 8: All documents relating to payment for services; agreements of representation, consultation, employment, services, confidentiality, or common interest; or any other type of contract relating to redistricting for the Texas House or Texas delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives that include any of the following individuals or entities: Adam Foltz, Chris Gober, The Gober Group, any consultant, any political operative, any expert, the Office of the Texas Attorney General, any other law firm, any other attorney, any other vendor, or any other person or entity.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it is overbroad and harassing. Although it appears to be bounded by specific persons and entities, the end of the request provides that the request applies to "any other attorney," "any other vendor," or "any other person or entity." The net effect is that the initial limitations are swallowed by the sheer breadth of a request that asks for "all documents" that "[relate] to redistricting" and that include "any other person or entity." Accordingly, this request is overly broad and conducting a search of this scope and breadth without any reasonable limitation is disproportionate to the needs of this case. Further, Mr. Wienckowski is not a party to this litigation, and should not be required to produce, for example, "all documents" that "[relate] to redistricting" that include "any political operative." Such a facially overbroad requests create an undue burden. Wiwa v. Royal Dutch Petroleum Co., 392 F.3d 812, 818 (5th Cir. 2004).

In addition, Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it calls for documents that are subject to the legislative privilege and the attorney-client privilege. Documents relating to services provided by third parties for a legislative purpose are subject to the legislative privilege. Bogan v. Scott-Harris, 523 U.S. 44, 55 (1998) (citing Supreme Court of Virginia v. Consumers Union of U. S., Inc., 446 U.S. 719, 731–34 (1980)). And documents relating to Mr. Wienckowski and any legal representation is subject to the attorney-client privilege.

Mr. Wienckowski also objects on the basis that this request does not list an end date. See Doe v. McMillan, 412 U.S. 306, 313–14 (1973). Any contracts or other agreements entered into after the filing of this complaint would necessarily be irrelevant.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney work-product privilege, the consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

Request 9: All non-privileged documents relating to the instant lawsuit or preceding investigation of Texas by the U.S. Department of Justice.

Response: Mr. Wienckowski objects to this request because it is overbroad. It is unclear from the face of this request why "all documents relating" to this lawsuit or the United States' preceding investigation would be relevant to the United States' claims. And insofar as these documents relate to the United States' investigation, these are documents that are more likely to be within the care, custody, or control of the United States. If such materials are more commonly held by others, including state and local law enforcement agencies, production should be requested from them rather than from an individual legislator. Given the availability of these documents from other sources, the burden of requiring Mr. Wienckowski to collect them far exceeds any benefit that might result. See Virginia Dep't of Corr. v. Jordan, 921 F.3d 180, 189 (4th Cir. 2019) (stating that courts should "consider what information is available to the requesting party from other sources" when analyzing "the benefit side of the ledger").

Mr. Wienckowski also objects on the basis that this request does not list an end date. See Doe v. McMillan, 412 U.S. 306, 313–14 (1973). Any documents originating after the filing of this complaint would necessarily be irrelevant.

Mr. Wienckowski further objects to this request to the extent that documents that are subject to attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product privilege, consulting expert privilege under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(D), deliberative process privilege, or protected from disclosure by Texas Government Code § 323.017, which is privileged under Fed. R. Evid. 501 are implicated by this request.

DECLARATION OF TODD HUNTER

I, Todd Hunter, declare as follows:

1. I serve as Chair of the Redistricting Committee for the Texas House of Representatives at the appointment of Dade Phelan, Speaker of the House, in the 87th Legislative Session.

2. In my role as Chair of Redistricting, the State of Texas hired Adam Foltz as a map-drawer for creation of the House map. Mr. Foltz was assigned to my staff and worked directly under me and at my direction.

3. The State of Texas also hired the Butler Snow LLP law firm to represent me, as Chairman of the Redistricting Committee, my staff, and the General Counsel of the Texas House during the redistricting process to, among other things, ensure legal compliance.

4. I have not waived and do not waive any privilege relating to Butler Snow's work product or their communications, including communications and work product by any consultants the firm hired in representing my staff and me.

5. My attorney-client relationship with Butler Snow LLP, as well as my staff's attorney-client relationship with Butler Snow LLP, continues through the present redistricting litigation.

6. I declare under penalty of perjury and subject to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct.
