UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MOVE TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS BY TEXAS LULAC

Defendants respectfully request an additional eight-day extension of time for parties to move to compel the production of documents pertaining to LULAC Plaintiffs’ August 30, 2022, Privilege Log, which was prepared in connection with LULAC Plaintiffs’ First, Second, and Third Supplemental Production of Documents. The original deadline was set for 30 days after receipt of the Privilege Log, which fell on Thursday, September 29, 2022. See ECF 203 ¶ IX.B.5. The parties then requested a one-week extension so that they might schedule a meet and confer. The motion was granted, making the current deadline Thursday, October 6, 2022. The requested eight-day extension would move the deadline to Friday, October 14, 2022.

The extension is not sought for purposes of delay. During the parties’ meet and confer, LULAC Plaintiffs agreed to serve a revised privilege log on Thursday, October 6 and no later Friday, October 7. The eight-day extension would give Defendants adequate time to review the revised log to determine whether their concerns have been adequately addressed or whether additional action would need to be taken. The extension thus would help the parties narrow any remaining areas of disagreement and potentially eliminate the need for Court intervention. The undersigned counsel consulted with counsel for LULAC Plaintiffs, who have represented that they consent to the requested extension.

Based on the foregoing, Defendants respectfully request that their unopposed motion for an extension of time be granted.

Date: October 4, 2022

Respectfully submitted.
