UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

SUSAN SOTO PALMER et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

STEVEN HOBBS, in his official capacity as Secretary of State of Washington, et al.,

Defendants,

and

JOSE TREVINO et al.,

Intervenor-Defendants.

Case No.: 3:22-cv-5035-RSL

INTERVENOR-DEFENDANTS’ RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFFS’ REMEDIAL PROPOSALS

INTRODUCTION

The Court should reject all five of Plaintiffs’ proposed remedial maps. In an attempt to circumvent the constitutional requirement that any map enacted by Washington’s independent Redistricting Commission contain bipartisan compromise, see Wash. Const. art. II, § 43, Plaintiffs and their politically-aligned State/Defendant counterparts attempt to obtain through this Court what the Washington Constitution affirmatively denied them—an overtly partisan legislative map, cf. Cooper v. Harris, 137 S. Ct. 1455, 1490 (2017) (Alito, J., concurring in the judgment in part and dissenting in part) (warning that “federal courts will be transformed into weapons of political warfare” that “invite the losers in the redistricting process to seek to obtain in court what they could not achieve in the political arena.”). In what can only generously be called a mockery of the

1 Voting Rights Act (“VRA”) and a condescending insult to Hispanic voters in Washington, in all
 2 of their five proposed remedial maps, Plaintiffs purport to cure an allegedly unlawful dilution of 3 Hispanic voting strength by further diluting Hispanic voting strength—lowering the percentage of 4 Hispanic citizens of voting age (“HCVAP”) in the Yakima Valley VRA “opportunity” district in 5 each and every one of their five proposals. If there were any doubt that Plaintiffs’ objectives were
 6 to serve partisan aims rather than the VRA’s anti-dilutive purposes, their proposed remedial maps
 7 dispel them.

8 Using the latest 2021 American Community Survey (“ACS”) numbers from the U.S.
 9 Census Bureau, the enacted Legislative District 15 (“LD-15”) contains an HCVAP of at least 10 52.4%. (See Expert Report of Sean P. Trende, Ph.D. (Trende Report), Dkt. # 251 at 16.) This 11 majority-HCVAP district elected a Latina state senator, Nikki Torres, by a 35-point margin over 12 her White opponent in the 2022 general election for this open seat, in the only contested legislative 13 election hitherto held in the enacted LD-15. In a first-of-its-kind holding, the Court found that,
 14 despite containing a majority HCVAP and electing a Latina by 35 points, the enacted LD-15 did 15 not afford an equal opportunity for Hispanic voters to elect a candidate of their choice. Because,
 16 evidently for Plaintiffs, the phrase “Hispanic Candidate of Choice” must be a synonym for 17 “Democratic Candidate.”

18 To those that espouse the same beliefs of Plaintiffs, the election of Nikki Torres by 35
 19 points over a White Democratic candidate can only be explained by alleging the Hispanic voters
 20 were unlawfully denied the ability to elect their preferred candidate—either by racially
 21 discriminatory voting procedures or boundary lines. The Court’s holding in this matter necessarily 22 implies that the explanation could not be because Hispanic voters in Yakima knowingly 23 participated in the franchise and elected Nikki Torres because they actually preferred her, or 24 because she is a child of immigrant parents and worked in the fields and grew up in Yakima.¹ It

25 ¹ See Ex. A, Email from Senator Nikki Torres to Washington Legislators, A Request Regarding Redistricting (Oct. 12, 26 2023, 1:03:27 PM PST). Senator Torres sent an email to all members of both Republican and Democratic Caucuses
 27 of the Washington House of Representatives and Senate. Intervenor-Defendant Representative Alex Ybarra is a member of the House Republican Caucus; as such, he received this email. It is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

1 could not be explained by her giving birth to her first child as a teen and dropping out of high
 2 school, then fighting to get her GED, undergraduate and graduate degrees, and becoming a
 3 community leader. Her election cannot be explained by—despite all odds against her—her picking
 4 herself up by the bootstraps as a single mother and providing for her family. Her election could 5 not be explained by the Hispanic voters in Yakima seeing themselves in her—the hopes and 6 dreams of what their children could accomplish through dedication and hard work. No, based on 7 Plaintiffs’ legal arguments, Nikki Torres was only elected because the system was rigged through 8 unlawful vote dilution.

9 Despite Plaintiffs’ best efforts arguing otherwise, the VRA does not mandate the creation
 10 of Democratic districts wherever there is concentration of minority population. See, e.g., Baird v.
 11 Consol. City of Indianapolis, 976 F.2d 357, 361 (7th Cir. 1992) (“The Voting Rights Act does not 12 guarantee that nominees of the Democratic Party will be elected, even if [minority] voters are 13 likely to favor that party’s candidates.”). Plaintiffs’ proposed maps remove Hispanic voters from 14 the Yakima “remedial” district and acceptance of any of Plaintiffs’ five remedial proposals would 15 compound that error by replacing them with Native American and White Democrats. The Court
 16 should reject Plaintiffs’ five remedial proposals and call them what they are: a backdoor to elect
 17 more Democratic candidates regardless of demographics through exploiting and inverting the 18 VRA—by challenging putative dilution of the Hispanic vote and then “remedying” that alleged 19 dilution with additional dilution.

20 ARGUMENT

21 A. Plaintiffs’ Remedial Proposals Fail for Legal Reasons.

22 The purpose of this Response is not to re-hash all of the reasons Plaintiffs’ remedial maps
 23 are unnecessary. Intervenor-Defendants’ legal position is simple—this Court should reject
 24 Plaintiffs’ remedial maps because Plaintiffs failed to meet the required legal burden that is a 25 prerequisite to a court requiring a minority “opportunity” district. See generally Thornburg v.
 26 Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986). Intervenor-Defendants have discussed the myriad of reasons
 27 Plaintiffs’ claims fall short—both in pre-and-post trial briefing—and incorporate those arguments

1 by reference herein. (See Intervenor-Defs.’ Tr. Br., Dkt. # 197; Intervenor-Defs.’ Written Closing
2 Argument, Dkt. # 215.)

3 However, it is worth noting that Plaintiffs still fail to show that the Court adopting any of 4 their remedial maps would actually remedy their alleged injury—that enacted LD-15 does not
5 provide Hispanic voters an equal opportunity to elect their candidate of choice. Said differently,
6 Plaintiffs have failed to show that Nikki Torres would not be reelected to the state senate if she 7 moved into one of their proposed remedial districts.

8 At trial, Plaintiffs contended that Nikki Torres’s victory in the only contested endogenous
9 election in enacted LD-15 was more evidence of racially-polarized voting. See, e.g., Trial Tr. 76:1-10 76:20. Yet now at the remedial phase, Plaintiffs’ experts fail to show that Nikki Torres would not
11 still be elected in any of their remedial districts, even if her share of the Hispanic vote was as small 12 as their experts contended at trial. See, e.g., Trial Ex. 2 at 4.

13 The Redistricting Commission reached a compromise that LD-15 would be a majority
14 HCVAP district, but would lean Republican. See, e.g., Trial Tr. 476:17-477:1, 747:16-23, 279:6-
15 23. Despite drawing a district that all head-to-head partisan metrics showing that Republicans
16 enjoyed only a 2-point advantage (see, e.g., Trende Report, Dkt. # 251 at 33), Senator Torres
17 defeated the Democratic candidate by a whopping 35 points. This margin of victory would be more 18 than sufficient to overcome the roughly 12- to 15-point Democratic advantage in Plaintiffs’
19 proposed remedial districts. (See Trende Report, Dkt. # 251 at 33, 55.) Yet Plaintiffs’ remedial
20 experts fail to explain or account for this “Nikki Torres Effect,” much less show if it is even 21 possible to draw a district in the Yakima region that would not again elect Republican Nikki 22 Torres. Thus, their claim should be dismissed for lack of standing. See, e.g., Lujan v. Defs. of 23 Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 561 (1992) (explaining that “the Plaintiff bears the burden” to establish 24 redressability at all “successive stages of the litigation”); see also Trial Tr. 89:11-17 (Plaintiffs’
25 expert Dr. Collingwood explained that he had no idea if it was even possible to draw a majority-
26 Hispanic district that both performs for Democratic candidates and keeps the Yakama Nation 27 intact).

1 B. Plaintiffs’ Remedial Proposals Fail for Practical Reasons.

2 The Court’s Memorandum of Decision in this case addresses Hispanic Voting strength in 3 the Yakima Valley. (See Dkt. # 218.) Notwithstanding the limited geographical scope of the 4 Court’s ruling, Plaintiffs decided to swing for the fences to see just how far they can exploit the 5 Court’s ruling to benefit State Democrats. While one cannot fault Plaintiffs for lack of ambition,
6 their fealty to geography and traditional redistricting principles is another matter. Although it
7 would be impossible to detail every instance in Plaintiffs’ proposed remedial maps where they try
8 to gain a partisan advantage outside of the Court’s decision regarding a Yakima Valley district, 9 what follows are some illustrative examples that shows their recommendations cannot be trusted.

10 1. “Curing” Hispanic Vote Dilution by Further Diluting the Hispanic Population.

11 Plaintiffs’ proposed remedial districts rest on something of a paradox: while purporting to 12 remedy dilution of Hispanic voting strength, every single one of the proposals actually dilutes
13 Hispanic voting strength further. The table below compares the HCVAP proportion of enacted
14 LD-15 to the estimated HCVAP proportion of each of the remedial districts in Plaintiffs’ Proposals
15 1 through 5:

Map	District	HCVAP (2021 ACS)
Enacted Plan	LD-15	52.6%
Plaintiffs’ Proposal 1 and 2	LD-14	51.7%
Plaintiffs’ Proposal 3 and 4	LD-14	50.2%
Plaintiffs’ Proposal 5	LD-14	46.9%

17
18
20
21 (See Trende Report, Dkt. # 251 at 67.) By claiming that their five proposals—each of which lowers
22 the HCVAP in the relevant district—will “remedy the VRA violation for Latino voters in the 23 Yakima Valley region and provide all voters in the region equal electoral opportunity” (Dkt. # 245
24 at 1-2), Plaintiffs are proposing to replace Hispanic Republican voters with White Democratic 25 voters, impliedly insisting that Hispanic voters can only elect their candidates of choice with the 26 help of more White Democrats.

1 As independent-minded Latino voters, Intervenors Trevino, Ybarra and Campos
 2 categorically reject this approach by Plaintiffs, which makes a mockery of the VRA. The VRA
 3 cannot possibly demand further dilution to remedy the alleged dilution, and Plaintiffs have not
 4 cited a single case in which a court has ever accepted such a remedy-dilution-with-more-dilution
 5 proposal.

6 2. Cascading Changes to Districts Outside the Scope of the Court's Order.

7 Although Plaintiffs only alleged the Enacted Plan violated the VRA with respect to one
 8 legislative district in South Central Washington, Plaintiffs' Remedial Proposals 1 through 4 would 9 adjust the boundaries for 20 percent or more of the state's legislative districts, across not just South
 10 Central Washington but Western Washington, North Central Washington and Eastern Washington
 11 too, affecting the majority of Washington counties and moving upwards of half a million
 12 Washingtonians into new legislative districts. (See Trende Report, Dkt. # 251 at 6-15, 41-50.)

13 The following table shows how many legislative districts would be altered, how many 14 counties affected and how many Washington residents moved to new districts in each of Plaintiffs'
 15 Remedial Proposals 1 through 4:

16 Plaintiffs' Proposal	Districts Changed	Counties Affected	Population Moved
17 Proposal 1	14	28	574,251
18 Proposal 2	11	21	506,922
19 Proposal 3	13	28	531,551
20 Proposal 4	10	21	476,440

21 (See id.)

22 Many of the redrawn districts in Plaintiffs' proposed remedial maps bely even a cursory
 23 understanding of Washington geography. As anyone flying into Washington can readily observe,
 24 the state is bisected by a rugged mountain range. While one district must transverse the Cascade
 25 Mountains in order to obtain an equal population across legislative districts as required by law, see
 26 Wash. Const. art. II, § 43(5), since statehood there has only ever been one such district, and always 27 the district containing Skamania and Klickitat Counties, see Ex. B, Trial Ex. 1061 at 180-97. The

1 Enacted Plan represents the first-ever legislative map with a trans-Cascade district outside
 2 Southwest Washington. There are practical realities for this—most of the Cascade Mountains lie
 3 within federally-protected National Parks or National Forests, which would create a “population
 4 desert” between the western and eastern portions of a trans-Cascade district, needlessly expanding
 5 the geographic size of such a district. And as any Washingtonian knows, there are only a few
 6 highway passes that connect Western and Eastern Washington, which are often challenging and 7 time-consuming to cross in winter months (and in some cases, like Chinook Pass through Highway
 8 410, closed entirely²), making such a district difficult to represent effectively. Despite this reality, 9 Plaintiffs’ Proposals 1 through 4 needlessly create multiple trans-Cascade districts. In addition to 10 maintaining most of the Enacted Plan’s boundaries for Legislative District 12 (stretching from 11 Wenatchee to Monroe), Proposals 1 through 4 extend Legislative District 17 from Vancouver all
 12 the way east to Goldendale, creating a second trans-Cascade district. (See Dkt. # 245-1 at 5-9.)
 13 And Proposals 2 and 4 extend Legislative District 13 from Moses Lake and Ephrata all the way to 14 Enumclaw (over Chinook Pass, which is typically closed for six months per year), creating a three 15 trans-Cascade districts in those maps. (See id. at 7, 9.)

16 3. Hispanic Populations That Are Far-Flung and Distant From One Another.

17 Dr. Trende’s expert report points out that the Hispanic population in Plaintiffs’ proposed 18 remedial districts are far-flung and distant from one another, thereby violating Gingles’s mandate
 19 that the minority populations must be compact. See LULAC v. Perry, 548 U.S. 399, 433 (quoting 20 Bush v. Vera, 517 U.S. 952, 997 (1996) (“The first Gingles condition refers to the compactness of 21 the minority population, not to the compactness of the contested district.”)).

22 Dr. Trende shows that, in their Proposals 1 and 2, Plaintiffs’ remedial district is drawn in 23 a way that captures nearly all the high-HCVAP neighborhoods in both Yakima and Pasco (two 24 cities that are themselves 85 miles apart) while avoiding nearly all the White neighborhoods in
 25

26 ² See, e.g., Press Release, Washington State Department of Transportation, SR 410/Chinook Pass and SR 123 Cayuse
 27 Pass Close for the Season (Nov. 14, 2023), <https://wsdot.wa.gov/about/news/2023/sr-410-chinook-pass-and-sr-123-cayuse-pass-close-season> (“Typically, SR 410 Chinook Pass and SR 123 Cayuse Pass reopen in late May . . .”).

1 those cities. (See Trende Report, Dkt. # 251 at 26-27.) Likewise, the boundaries of District 14 in
 2 these two maps encompass nearly all the majority-Hispanic voting districts along the Yakima
 3 River while avoiding nearly all the majority-White voting districts. (See id. at 28.) Dr. Trende’s
 4 dot density maps also graphically show how the Hispanic population of District 14 in Proposals 1
 5 and 2 is dispersed throughout Yakima, Pasco and the Yakima River Valley connecting the two 6 (see id. at 29-32), leading him to conclude that “the district stitched together discrete clusters of 7 minority groups to achieve the 50% + 1 threshold,” rather than there being “a compact minority
 8 population at the core of the district.” (Id. at 21-22.)

9 Given the minimal differences between Plaintiffs’ remedial district in Proposals 3 and 4
 10 (compared to their remedial district in Proposals 1 and 2) with respect to precincts in the Yakima, 11 Pasco and the Yakima River Valley areas, Dr. Trende also concludes that “the same analysis from 12 Maps 1 and 2 applies” with respect to the remedial district in Proposals 3 and 4. (Id. at 54.)

13 4. Playing Political Games with Political Performance of Legislative Districts.

14 “The Voting Rights Act does not guarantee that nominees of the Democratic Party will be 15 elected, even if [minority] voters are likely to favor that party’s candidates.” Baird, 976 F.2d at 16 361. Intervenor-Defendants have continually argued that Plaintiffs’ VRA claims were an attempt 17 “to obtain in court what they could not achieve in the political arena”—or in this case, through 18 Washington’s bipartisan redistricting process. Cooper, 137 S. Ct. at 1490 (Alito, J., concurring in 19 the judgment in part and dissenting in part) (see also, e.g., Dkt. # 215 at 51). Plaintiffs’ proposed 20 remedial maps show that Intervenor-Defendants’ fears were well founded.

21 In addition to shifting the partisan tilt of the challenged district (enacted LD-15) from an 22 average of -1.8% Democratic to +12.5% Democratic (using “Total Vote, 2016-2020” metric) in 23 the remedial districts of their Proposals 1 and 2, and +12.0% Democratic in Proposals 3 and 4 (see 24 Trende Report at 33, 55), Plaintiffs’ proposals make several other partisan changes that are both 25 unnecessary and one-sided. For example, under Plaintiffs’ Proposals 1 and 2, “District 12, which 26 always voted for the Republican candidate under the Enacted Map, is transformed into a district
 27 where the Republican candidate sometimes loses, and frequently has close calls.” (Id. at 33.) Under

1 Proposals 3 and 4, “District 12 is made more Democratic, and is turned from a district carried by
 2 former President Donald Trump into one carried by President Joe Biden.” (Id. at 55.) “More
 3 dramatically, District 17 moves from a district where . . . the Republican has won by 0.9% on 4 average to one where the Democrat has won by 1.4% on average” using the “DRA elections”
 5 metric. (Id. at 34.) Likewise, under Proposals 3 and 4, District 17 “is made even more Democratic.”
 6 (Id. at 55.) Both Districts 12 and 17 “are presently represented by Republicans” in the state senate
 7 and both state house seats in each district. (Id. at 34.) But, as Dr. Trende points out, such partisan
 8 changes to districts beyond the remedial district “could have been avoided rather easily,” through
 9 slightly different adjustments by the map-drawer. (Id. at 34-35.)

10 Even more troubling, Dr. Trende’s analysis concludes that there are no countervailing
 11 partisan shifts in Plaintiffs’ proposed maps that might “make a Democratic incumbent appreciably
 12 more vulnerable.” (Id. at 34.) In other words, not only are Plaintiffs seeking “to obtain in court”
 13 an additional Democratic legislative district in the Yakima area that their political allies “could not 14 achieve” at the Redistricting Commission, Cooper, 137 S. Ct. at 1490 (Alito, J., concurring in the 15 judgment in part and dissenting in part), but they are now using the remedial process to seek to 16 turn two other legislative districts—one in North Central Washington and one in Southwest
 17 Washington—into majority-Democratic districts. If successful, this would result in six additional 18 Democratic state representatives and three additional Democratic state senators (in addition to the 19 two additional Democratic state representatives and additional Democratic state senator elected 20 from the remedial district in each of Plaintiffs’ remedial proposals).

21 5. Playing More Political Games with Incumbent Legislators.

22 The Supreme Court has acknowledged that traditional redistricting principles include 23 “preserving the cores of prior districts and avoiding contests between incumbent[s].” Karcher v.
 24 Daggett, 462 U.S. 725, 740 (1983). Yet Plaintiffs’ five remedial proposals would wreak havoc on 25 incumbents far removed from enacted LD-15. According to Dr. Trende’s analysis, each of 26 Plaintiffs’ map proposals would imperil numerous current Republican legislators by moving them
 27 into Democratic districts or pitting them against other Republican incumbents. (See Trende Report,

1 Dkt. # 251 at 38-40, 59-60, 66; see also Dkt. # 248 at 2-4.) In contrast, not a single incumbent
 2 Democratic legislator is moved into a new district, placed in a safely Republican district or paired
 3 against an incumbent Democrat. (See id.) The table below summarizes these effects:

Legislator	LD	Party	Chamber	Proposal	Change(s)
Stephanie Barnard	8	R	House	1, 2, 3, 4	Moved to LD-16 with Reps. Klicker & Rude
Brad Hawkins	12	R	Senate	1, 3	Moved to LD-7 with Sen. Short
Curtis King	14	R	Senate	1, 2, 3, 4	Moved to LD-5 which is not on ballot until 2026
Chris Corry	14	R	House	1, 2, 3, 4, 5	Moved to LD-15 with Reps. Chandler & Sandlin (Maps 1-4); moved to LD-13 with Reps. Dent & Ybarra (Map 5)
Gina Mosbrucker	14	R	House	1, 2, 3, 4, 5	Moved to LD-17 with Reps. Harris & Waters (Maps 1-4); moved to LD-16 with Reps. Klicker & Rude (Map 5)
Nikki Torres	15	R	Senate	1, 2, 3, 4	Moved to LD-16 with Sen. Dozier
Bruce Chandler	15	R	House	5	Moved to safely Dem. LD-14
Bryan Sandlin	15	R	House	5	Moved to safely Dem. LD-14
Phil Fortunato	31	R	Senate	1, 3	Moved to safely Dem. LD-5
Drew Stokesbary	31	R	House	1	Moved to safely Dem. LD-5

17 (See id.)

18 Many of these shifts appear gratuitous and intentional. In Plaintiffs' Proposals 1 through 19 4, Senator Curtis King is drawn out of his current district by less than one mile, as is Representative
 20 Gina Mosbrucker in Proposals 3 and 4. Representative Chris Corry is left 1.5 miles outside of his 21 current district in Proposals 1 through 4, and just one-third of a mile away in Proposals 5. Even 22 more egregiously in Proposal 5, LD-15 Representative Bruce Chandler is moved into a
 23 neighboring district by a mere 500 feet. His seatmate, Representative Bryan Sandlin, is treated 24 similarly, ending up only one-half of a mile outside his current district, despite living in an 25 extremely sparsely populated area on the north slope of the Yakima River Valley. Lastly, in 26 Plaintiffs' Proposal 1, House Minority Leader Drew Stokesbary (who is also, as Plaintiffs have 27

1 pointed out, undersigned counsel, see Dkt. # 64 at 3) sees his neighborhood in South Auburn split
2 in half, with his residence ending up one-half mile outside his current district. (See also Trende
3 Report, Dkt. # 251 at 39-40.)

4 6. Ignoring the Commission’s First-Ever Tribal Consultation Policy.

5 For the first time in the history of the Redistricting Commission, it adopted a formal tribal
6 consultation policy. See Ex. C, Trial Ex. 1060; see also Washington State Redistricting
7 Commission, 2021 Redistricting Commission Tribal Consultation Policy (Apr. 12, 2021),
8 available at https://rdcext.blob.core.windows.net/public/Communications_and_Outreach/Tribal
9 Consultation/Tribal Consultation Policy - Adopted.pdf. Pursuant to this policy, the Commission
10 engaged in formal, government-to-government discussions with the Yakama Nation. See, e.g., Ex.
11 E at 2, Email from Lisa McLean, Executive Director, Washing State Redistricting Commission, to 12 Redistricting Commissioners (Aug. 6, 2021, 11:21:49 AM PDT). In the course of these 13 discussions, the Yakama Nation “urge[d] the Redistricting Commission to reject any legislative 14 map that divides the Yakama Reservation into separate representative districts[,]” and to “reject
15 any legislative mapping that demonstrably ‘cracks’ the indigenous voting population located south
16 of the Yakama Reservation in Klickitat and Skamania Counties[,]” where “many enrolled
17 members reside on off-Reservation trust parcels, at traditional family homesteads, or in 18 communities near the usual and accustom[ed] fishing sites along the Columbia River.” Ex. D at 5, 19 Letter from Delano Saluskin, Chairman, Yakama Nation Tribal Council, to Sarah Augustine,
20 Chair, Washington State 2021 Redistricting Commission (Jun. 3, 2021). At a tribal consultation
21 meeting with the Redistricting Commission on August 4, 2021, the Yakama Nation presented a 22 slide deck which included a request that the “2021 Redistricting Maps Should Provide For Single 23 Representation Between The Yakima & Columbia R[ivers].” Ex. E at 22, Presentation by Yakama
24 Nation Tribal Council to Washington State Redistricting Commission (Aug. 4, 2021). In a letter
25 to the Commission during their final negotiations, the Yakama Nation indicated they “specifically 26 favor[ed] elements of Commissioner Graves’ proposed Legislative District 14,” including those 27 that “incorporate[d] Yakama members living in established tribal communities off-Reservation

1 and on federal trust property along the Columbia River” and “include[d] critical natural resource
 2 management areas for the protection of adjacent forests and rivers.” Ex. F at 7-8, Letter from 3 Delano Saluskin, Chairman, Yakama Nation Tribal Council, to Sarah Augustine, Chair,
 4 Washington State 2021 Redistricting Commission (Nov. 4, 2021). Notably, consistent with the 5 Yakama Nation’s formal request, Commissioner Graves’ proposed map of District 14 extended
 6 from the Yakima to Columbia River. See Ex. G.

7 None of Plaintiffs’ maps extend the same government-to-government courtesy to the 8 Yakama Nation as Commissioner Graves, and eventually the Commission. District 14 in Plaintiffs’
 9 Proposals 1, 2 and 5 only extend to the southern border of the Yakama Reservation, not all the way
 10 to the Columbia River at White Salmon as in the Enacted Plan (and LD-14 does not reach any part 11 of the Columbia River in their Proposal 5). (See Dkt. # 245-1.) In Proposals 3 and 4, District 14 12 extends further down the Columbia River (though still not all the way to White Salmon like the 13 Enacted Plan), but District 17 protrudes from Clark County east to Goldendale, bisecting much of 14 the Yakama Nation’s usual and accustomed hunting and fishing grounds and placing several off-
 15 Reservation trust parcels and traditional family homesteads in a separate legislative district from 16 the Yakama Reservation. (See id.)

17 7. Ignoring the Commission’s Extensive Public Comments.

18 While Plaintiffs’ map-making misadventures are too numerous to catalogue
 19 comprehensively, Intervenor-Defendant Alex Ybarra is uniquely impacted by one such example.
 20 In Plaintiffs’ Proposals 2 and 4, Legislative District 13, which Rep. Ybarra represents in the State
 21 House, is extended westward across the Cascade Mountains all the way to Enumclaw. (See Dkt. #
 22 245-1.) In addition to the obvious logistical challenges of representing a district crossing Chinook
 23 Pass, see supra note 2, this configuration is somewhat similar to the configure by Commissioner
 24 Paul Graves, see Ex. G, which received swift and severely negative feedback. Not only does this 25 configuration of District 13 exemplify Plaintiffs’ ignorance of Washington’s geography and other
 26 traditional redistricting principles, it also illustrates their disregard for the Commission’s
 27

1 bipartisan, good-faith negotiating process that included tremendous efforts to incorporate public
2 feedback and produce maps receptive to the needs of Washington.

3 CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, the Court should reject all of Plaintiffs’ remedial proposals,
5 which purport to “remedy” voter dilution through additional dilution. Here, the proposed cure is 6 not merely worse than the disease—it is, quite literally, more of the alleged disease itself. And 7 despite the narrow holding of the Court regarding LD-15, Plaintiffs are now attempting to use the 8 remedial process to further trample the constitutionally-mandated work of the Redistricting
9 Commission and score political wins (outside the scope of the Court’s holding) through this Court
10 and distortions of the VRA, as opposed to engaging in the required bipartisan process so clearly 11 outlined in the Washington Constitution.

Exhibit A

Subject: A Request Regarding Redistricting
Date: Thursday, October 12, 2023 at 2:03:27 PM Mountain Standard Time

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing to ask for a personal and professional courtesy.

As you know, a federal judge has ruled that the map of Legislative District 15, as created by our state's bipartisan Redistricting Commission, violates the federal Voting Rights Act. The judge has ordered the boundaries of the district, which I represent, to be redrawn – even though the commission approved them unanimously. At least one other district will also be affected by this.

The process used to redraw the maps is not just some political or legislative matter to me; it is very important to me personally. Please allow me to explain.

I'm a first-generation American Latina.

My dad has 15 siblings and was born in Michoacán, Mexico. My mom has 11 siblings and was born in Jalisco, Mexico. My parents met in California. They both came as immigrants and worked in the hospitality industry. After my brother was born, they decided to move to Washington because they heard there were more jobs here.

Members of my family have resided in Pasco ever since, for more than 40 years.

I grew up in East Pasco, working in agriculture alongside my parents from a very young age. We worked long hours picking fruit: cherries, apples, plums, grapes, you name it. While I didn't necessarily enjoy waking up around 4 a.m. every day, my family needed money, and as with most in our community, nothing mattered more than family and meeting the family's needs.

Today I am the mother of two adult daughters. I became a mother in 1992, as a single 16-year-old. As you might imagine, my parents were not pleased to see me pregnant at such a young age.

My mom had a sixth-grade education and my father had to help with family work at a very, very young age – so regularly attending school wasn't an option. Despite not having much formal education, my parents were very smart, and like most migrant families, they wanted more for their children. They wanted me to get an education and make the most of the American Dream.

My parents pushed me to be my best, and led by example. In the evenings they studied for their citizenship tests, taking some ESL classes. At age 8 I was their translator, and enjoyed helping them learn to speak English. They finally became proud United States citizens thanks to President Reagan's amnesty program.

Knowing my parents worked so hard to provide a better life for me and my siblings, I would not allow my being a young single mom to hold me back. After having my first daughter in January 1992, I continued attending school. It was very tough. I was paying rent, paying childcare and attending high school all at the same time.

At the beginning of my senior year, I met with my assigned school counselor and mentioned that two of my friends were talking about enrolling in a youth GED program. To my dismay, my counselor said I would not make it and should just drop out.

Well, like most Latinas, I tend to do the opposite of what I'm told, especially when people underestimate me. I met with a lady who was running the program in Pasco, .

I was enrolled and received my GED in 1994 — right when I was supposed to graduate with my friends.

I didn't stop there. I attended Columbia Basin College and became the first in my family to earn a college degree. In 2015, I received my MBA.

After becoming involved in the Tri-Cities Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, a mentor with the organization convinced me to step up and become president.

That same mentor and friend later convinced me to run for city council. Then others started talking to me about running for state Senate. I did and was elected.

What does all this have to do with redistricting?

Well, some of the partisan advocates who sought to invalidate the 15th District boundaries have insinuated (and sometimes stated bluntly) that I don't represent my district. Some have even proposed changing the boundaries to exclude me from my district.

This is hurtful and wrong.

When the district map was approved nearly two years ago, 73% of my district was Hispanic. That proportion is even higher now.

Like my family, many of the people I serve either have or have a family member who has toiled in the fields to keep everyone fed, clothed and sheltered.

Like me, many in my district did not come from a family with a long history of formal education. But they do have a strong work ethic and a strong desire to have their kids achieve the American Dream.

Many of my constituents in the Yakima Valley and the Tri-Cities have had many generations of their families live in this great country. But there also are many, especially in cities like Grandview and Sunnyside, who are brand new to our country. Whether Spanish or English is their first language, I am able to reach out to learn what they need most from their government.

For some who can only speak Spanish, I am not just their voice, but I represent a government that for the first time can hear them and truly understand them.

So unlike what some would claim, I work extremely hard to represent all of the people of the 15th District with excellence.

Why? Because I am not just from this community, I am of this community. Their story is my story. Their struggles are my struggles. Our shared faith, love of family and hard work means my achievements are their achievements, and vice versa.

Whether it means getting up at 4 a.m. to pick fruit in the fields or working through the challenges of earning a diploma as a single mom, I know what it is like to put my head down and get the job done.

I believe the best way to redraw the districts in the Yakima Valley is to listen to the people of the state and the people of the Yakima Valley.

The people of our state wanted an end to back-room political deals that allow for gerrymandering. They changed our constitution so redistricting is done by a bipartisan commission that works in public view. For decades, that process has worked. The people also gave the state Legislature the ability to reconvene the Redistricting Commission when modifications must be made to boundaries. That is their preference, and we should listen.

Only by reconvening the bipartisan Redistricting Commission can we also ensure the voices of people and communities in the Yakima Valley will be heard. The opinions of partisan advocates from Southern California or Washington, D.C. may be important to some. I will trust the people who live in Yakima, Granger, Sunnyside and Grandview to know best about what their communities want.

A court-directed process shuts out the people most affected by the redistricting. Maps submitted by plaintiffs are woefully inadequate compared to listening to the people. A court-appointed special master would make maps behind closed doors. This is the opposite of public engagement and government transparency. It eliminates the bipartisan give-and-take that has for decades promoted equitable district boundaries.

So I come to you, as a representative of the people and communities I care so much about, to personally ask that we keep politics from interfering with the constitutional process the people have chosen. It is the right thing to do.

Please vote YES to meeting in a special session so we may convene the Redistricting Commission to do the work entrusted to it by the people.

*Pursuant to Article 2, section 11 of the state constitution, neither house may adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other. Accordingly, both chambers regularly convene "pro forma" session to conform to this constitutional restriction. Administrative and ceremonial business is conducted during a pro forma session. Action requiring a vote of the membership is not taken and few members are generally in attendance.

HISTORY OF REDISTRICTING AND REAPPORTIONMENT IN WASHINGTON STATE

1889 CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

Article II, Sec. 2:

“The house of representatives shall be composed of not less than sixty-three nor more than ninety-nine members. The number of senators shall not be more than one-half nor less than one-third of the number of members of the house of representatives. The first legislature shall be composed of seventy members of the house of representatives, and thirty-five senators.”

Article II, Sec. 3:

“. . . and also after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and house of representatives, according to the number of inhabitants . . .”

Article XXII, Sec. 1 and 2:

“. . . the state shall be divided into twenty-four senatorial districts . . . and the representatives shall be divided among the several counties . . .”

1890 Legislature passed a redistricting bill creating 34 single-member senatorial districts and 49 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 78 representatives. (Effective date: September, 1890)

1899 Legislature passed a bill creating Ferry County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 50th representative district. (C 18 L 99)

Legislature passed a bill creating Chelan County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 51st representative district. (C 95 L 99)

1901 Legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 42 single-member senatorial districts and 56 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 95 representatives. (C 60 L 01– Effective date: January, 1903) (This act was vetoed by the Governor on March 4, 1901, and returned to the Senate. The act was passed over the Governor’s veto on March 4, 1901 by the Senate, and on March 6, 1901 by the House of Representatives.)

1905 Legislature passed a bill creating Benton County. It was included in the 15th senatorial district and constituted the 57th (later the 58th) representative district. (C 89 L 05) (In 1911, the 57th representative district was changed to the 58th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

1907 Legislature divided Chehalis County and named the new portion Grays Harbor County. It was included in the 21st senatorial district and became the 30th representative district. (C 47 L 07) Later, however, the Washington State Supreme Court ruled that this action was unconstitutional.

1909 Legislature passed a bill creating Grant County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 58th (59th) representative district. (C 17 L 09) (In 1911, the 58th representative district was changed to the 59th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

Legislature passed four redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 7th, 8th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 32nd and 36th senatorial districts and the 8th, 9th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 42nd, 46th, 53rd and 54th representative districts. (C 103 L 09) (C 107 L 09) (C 178 L 09) (C 187 L 09)

1911 Legislature passed a bill creating Pend Oreille County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 60th representative district. (C 28 L 11)

1915 Legislature passed a bill changing the name of Chehalis County to Grays Harbor County. (C 77 L 15)

1921 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 4th, 5th, and 7th senatorial districts and the 3rd, 4th, and 6th representative districts. (C 47 L 21) (C 167 L 21)

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

1923 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd and 4th senatorial districts and the 2nd and 3rd representative districts. (C 91 L 23)

1925 Legislature passed a bill changing the spelling of Clarke County to “Clark County.” (C 51 L 25)

1927 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 31st and 32nd senatorial districts and the 41st and 42nd representative districts. (C 221 L 27)

Legislature repealed an 1890 act which prescribed the number of senators and representatives; provided for their election and for the apportionment of the state into senatorial and representative districts. (C 127 L 27)

1929 Legislature repealed C 178 L 09 which made boundary changes in the 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, and 29th senatorial districts and the 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th and 39th representative districts. (C 22 L 29)

1930 People redistricted by Initiative 57. State Supreme Court upheld the use of the initiative process for redistricting. The initiative provided an increase of senators from 42 to 46 and representatives from 97 to 99. Other changes were: (1) representative districts were made the same as senatorial districts; (2) each district had a minimum of two representatives; and (3) county lines were used primarily as boundaries for districts. (C 2 L 31– Effective date: January, 1931)

1933 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made changes in boundaries of the 9th and 10th districts and the 4th and 5th districts. (C 20 L 33; C 74 L 33)

1956 People redistricted by Initiative 199. The initiative provided for 49 senate members from each of 49 districts. The house consisted of 99 members; two from each of the 49 districts and one additional member from the 31st district. (C 5 L 57)

1957 Legislature amended people’s Initiative 199. (Initiatives may be amended by 2/3 vote of both houses of the legislature.) State Supreme Court upheld amendments. Amendments did not change the number of districts; only made boundary changes. (C 289 L 57– Effective date: January, 1957)

March 1962 U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Baker v. Carr that the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution provides basis for legal action on malapportionment.

July 1962 Initiative 211, a redistricting measure, certified for the November ballot after required number of signatures filed with Secretary of State.

August 1962 Thigpen v. Meyers filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought relief for malapportionment. Court postponed hearing until after November election when people cast vote on Initiative 211.

November 1962 Initiative 211 defeated at polls – 396,419 FOR; 441,085 AGAINST.

December 1962 The U.S. District Court heard case of Thigpen v. Meyers and ruled that “existing apportionment of the Washington Legislature is invidiously discriminatory.” Court deferred final action until after 1963 legislature met “to afford it the opportunity of discharging constitutional mandate.”

April 1963 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 23-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

May 1963 The U.S. District Court declared existing legislative districts null and void, enjoined Secretary of State (defendant) from conducting elections from existing districts.

July 1963 Secretary of State appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court and petitioned for a stay of the District Court’s judgment, pending appeal.

February 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court granted stay of proceedings in case of Thigpen v. Meyers pending appeal—in effect, restoring existing districts.

June 15, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Reynolds v. Sims that both houses of state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

June 22, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court rejected state’s appeal in Thigpen v. Meyers thus upholding the judgment of the District Court.

October 1964 The District Court ordered legislature to enact a constitutional reapportionment as its first order of business in the 1965 regular session. Court retained jurisdiction in order to examine any apportionment enacted by the legislature.

1965 In compliance with the order of the U.S. District Court in October 1964, the legislature could not pass any legislation until it had passed a redistricting bill.

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

1965 Forty-seven days after convening, the legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 49 senatorial districts with one member elected from each district; 56 legislative districts with two representatives elected from each of 41 districts, three representatives from one district (District 42), and one from each of the remaining 14 districts (which were actually seven A-B districts), for a total of 99 representatives. (C 6 L 65—Effective date: February, 1965)

May 1971 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 60-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

July 1971 Prince v. Kramer, et. al, filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought legislative and congressional redistricting of the state.

August 1971 The U.S. District Court declared 1965 redistricting laws unconstitutional and invalid. The order also enjoined the defendants (Washington State and King County election officials) from conducting any further elections under the 1965 law.

September 1971 The U.S. District Court ordered that unless the legislature shall have enacted a redistricting bill on or before February 25, 1972, the court would order the redistricting of the state.

February 1972 Legislature adjourned without passing a redistricting bill.

April 1972 The U.S. District Court established legislative district boundaries for the state in Prince v. Kramer, et. al, Civil Order No. 9668. (Effective date: April 21, 1972)

1974 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 13th, 14th, 23rd, 26th and 27th districts. (C 123 L 74 1st Ex. S.)

1981 Legislature passed a redistricting plan composed of 51 legislative districts. Four of the districts, 19-A, 19-B, 39-A, and 39-B were single-member representative districts and the remainder were multi-member representative districts each electing two representatives. All legislative districts were single-member senate districts, except that 19-A and 19-B were combined to form the 19th senatorial district and 39-A and 39-B were combined to form the 39th senatorial district. (C 288 L 81—Effective date: May 18, 1981). Governor Spellman accepted the revised legislative districts, but rejected the congressional district plan.

1982 A new congressional plan was passed. The measure also established an independent and bipartisan redistricting commission to begin in 1991. (C 2 L 82—Effective date: February 17, 1982) The entire bill was struck down by U.S. District Court's order in Doph, et. al, v. Munro, but the legislature was granted the first 90 days of the 1983 session to draft a new plan.

1983 A temporary citizen panel was established to redraw the congressional district boundaries as required by the Court's order in Doph. Additionally, a new independent bipartisan redistricting commission was established in law and the State Constitution and charged with both legislative and congressional redistricting. The legislature was given limited modification authority of any commission approved plan. (C 16 L 83 and Amendment 74 to the Washington State Constitution—Effective date: November 8, 1983)

1984 Legislature passed modifications to the 1983 Redistricting Act which made technical corrections and included language inadvertently omitted from the earlier act. (C 13 L 84—Effective date: June 7, 1984)

1991-1992 The first bipartisan redistricting commission authorized by the 1983 constitutional amendment was appointed in January 1991. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts. The plan was officially submitted to the legislature on January 1, 1992. The 1992 legislature made only technical changes in the congressional plan (SCR 8421). The 30-day period in which the legislature could amend the commission's plan expired on February 11, 1992 and the plan became the state's districting law. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07C RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29.69B RCW—Effective date: February 11, 1992.)

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

1995 A new statutory deadline was established mandating that the decennial redistricting plan be adopted by the commission by December 15 of each year ending in 1 (SSB 5764, C 88, L 95).

2001-2002 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2001. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts. The legislative portion was adopted by the statutory deadline of December 15, 2001. The congressional portion was adopted by the constitutional deadline of January 1, 2002. Each portion was submitted to the legislature after each was adopted.

The 2002 legislature subsequently adopted legislation retroactively changing the statutory deadline for the submission of redistricting plans to January 1 of each year ending in two (SB 6296; C 4 L 02). The 2002 legislature also made minor amendments to the legislative plan (SCR 8429, SCR 8430) affecting the 7th & 12th, 27th & 28th and 18th & 49th districts. Although the 30-day period in which the legislature could have amended the commission plan would have expired on February 12, 2002, the legislative and congressional plan became the state's districting law on February 8, 2002, the effective dates of the amendatory resolutions. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07D RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29A.76A RCW.)

2011-2012 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2011. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts which were submitted January 1, 2012. The 2012 Legislature amended the plan as proscribed by law (EHCR 4409; Chapter 2011 c60 §41) and adopted the plan as amended on February 1, 2012 (Legislative: 44.07E, RCW. Congressional: 29A.76B, RCW)

2016 A new constitutional deadline was passed by the voters mandating that the decennial redistricting plan be adopted by the commission by November 15 of each year ending in 1. (Amendment 108, 2016 Senate Joint Resolution No. 8210. Approved November 8, 2016.)

legislative district plan created by the independent commission.

By doing so, they refuse to defend the interests of thousands of those who engaged in the redistricting process that are reflected in the plan, and Washington state law. Their refusal to act undermines the legitimacy and independence of the commission, and therefore the process enshrined in our constitution. Worse, it undermines the values that drive the redistricting process in Washington state: Independence from political influence, collaboration and bipartisan compromise.

When I was asked to consider serving as chair, I agreed because, while we live in a time when our nation faces widening political polarization, I believe in democratic institutions. I believed that, by engaging voting commissioners in a process that asked them to serve the public good by rising above their own individual or political interests, we had an opportunity to demonstrate collective representation in action.

As chair, I prioritized engaging as many Washingtonians as possible in the process. Commission staff undertook the largest and most accessible outreach effort in redistricting history that resulted in more than 6,000 electronic comments, hundreds of thousands of engagements through social media and more than 400 state residents providing public testimony.

The 2021 redistricting commission was also the first to adopt a tribal consultation policy, guaranteeing constructive communication with federally recognized tribal governments, acknowledging tribal sovereignty and respecting the government-to-government relationship. The interests of thousands of individuals, communities and interest groups were heard by commissioners, and their interests are memorialized in the maps.

The four voting members of the redistricting commission arrived at consensus on final congressional and legislative redistricting plans, albeit late, and the House and the Senate approved final plans on Feb. 2 and Feb. 8, respectively. These plans, and the final maps they contain, are now Washington state law.

Washington state is one of only a handful of states with an independent commission, where the minority and majority leaders of the Senate and the House each appoint one registered voter to the commission. To ensure the commission's independence, appointees must not have served in public office, or as an officer in a political party, in the two-year period preceding their tenure. Together, the four appointees are empowered to draw legislative and congressional boundaries across the state on behalf of all Washingtonians. For a redistricting plan to become the law, it must be affirmed by at least three voting commissioners, requiring bipartisan agreement.

This intentionally bipartisan process is meant to ensure a spirit of collaboration over partisanship, and compromise over winner-takes-all. It is Washington state's attempt to avoid gerrymandering, which occurs in states where the legislature draws the maps and the party that holds the majority in the legislature can draw boundaries to its political advantage.

There is a community that feels they must challenge the Washington legislative district map, specifically asking for the 15th and 14th districts to be redrawn. Their lawsuit is part of the due process guaranteed to all Americans, and I affirm the rights of the community seeking relief to be heard in federal court. However, by refusing to defend the legislative plan in question, Washington leaders undermine the values enshrined in it: Independence from political influence, bipartisan compromise and public engagement; they are dismissing the interests of thousands of those who engaged in the redistricting process that are reflected in the map.

The responsibility of the Secretary of State, Speaker of the House and Senate Majority leader is, I believe, to stand up for the process — and the independent bipartisan compromise reached, rather than seeking to gain political advantage through a redrawn district that ignores the enormous public input that influenced the compromise.

It has been suggested that the argument over the 15th and the 14th districts is a justice issue for vulnerable communities of color; a coalition of Latino voters believes the current district boundaries will not allow Latinos the chance to elect candidates of their choice. However, their suit directly demands splitting the Yakama Reservation by bringing towns on the Yakama Reservation into the 15th district, in direct opposition to the interests of the Yakama Nation reflected in the current plan. In government-to-government consultation, the Yakama Nation required that Yakama territories be contained in one district. By refusing to defend the law, aren't Washington leaders hanging out to dry communities of color, like the Yakama Nation, whose interests are expressed in the final map?

If Washington leaders will not defend the interests expressed in the map, are individual community members who live in the 14th and 15th districts expected to do this? Do we expect communities of interest in this rural area to raise the cash for a defense of the law in federal court, when Washington state is obligated to do so? It appears this way to me.

Unfortunately, since many vulnerable communities of color will not have the opportunity to raise hundreds of thousands of dollars in a matter of weeks, their interests will go undefended. Meanwhile, contrary to the spirit of our redistricting framework, a political advantage may be gained through a court process without defendants, undermining faith in yet one more democratic process.

I did not sign up for that!

Re: 2021 Redistricting Commission – Single District Representation For The Yakama Reservation

Dear Chair and Commissioners,

On behalf of the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation (the “Yakama Nation”), I urge the 2021 Redistricting Commission (“Commission”) adopt a redistricting map that places the Yakama Reservation inside a single representative district. Additionally, the Commission is requested for government-to-government consultation with the Yakama Nation Tribal Council in Toppenish, Washington. The Yakama Nation is a sovereign federally-recognized Native Nation pursuant to the Treaty with the Yakamas of June 9, 1855 (the “Treaty”).¹ The Yakama Nation has more than 11,000 enrolled members living across a nearly 1.4 million acre reservation and dispersed throughout a 10 million acre homeland of Yakama’s traditional Treaty-territory.

Prior to 2011, the Yakama Reservation was represented by the 15th Legislative District and the 4th Congressional District – which allowed for Yakama members to cast their votes and manifest political will in unified representative districts at the state and federal level. The Yakama Nation opposes the existing legislative district map, adopted in 2012, which split representation for the Yakama Reservation between the 14th and 15th Legislative Districts along state highway 97. Additionally, the Yakama Reservation now has divided representation between the 3rd and 4th Congressional Districts along the Yakima-Klickitat County boundary line. This absurd quartering of the Yakama Nation’s representative districts means that enrolled members living on different sides of the Yakama Reservation do not have any shared legislative representation at state or federal levels. Indigenous voters and potential indigenous candidates between the municipalities of Toppenish and Glenwood are easily confused or overwhelmed by the array of representative candidates and bodies that emerge on the local, county, legislative district, and congressional district levels. Today's districts harm the Yakama Nation's ability to engage and benefit from the political process. Resolving the split representation for the legislative and congressional districts will improve both voter participation and meaningful representation of the voters' interests.

Yakama Nation urges the Redistricting Commission to reject any legislative map that divides the Yakama Reservation into separate representative districts. Additionally, many enrolled members reside on off-Reservation trust parcels, at traditional family homesteads, or in communities near the usual and accustomed fishing sites along the Columbia River. The Redistricting Commission should further reject any legislative mapping that demonstrably 'cracks' the indigenous voting population located south of the Yakama Reservation in Klickitat and Skamania Counties.

The 2011 Redistricting Commission split the elected representation of tribal communities across Washington. Now, the Yakama Nation calls on this Redistricting Commission to bring fairness and transparency back to the political process by restoring voting equity for the Yakama People. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this letter, please contact the Yakama Nation legislative staff, Mr. Anthony Aronica, (509) 833-9350, anthony@yakamanation-olc.org and Ms. Dawn Vyvyan at (206) 628-3014, dpvyvyan@outlook.com.

Hello all –

Below are key points made at the Tribal Consultation with the Yakama Nation on Wednesday, August 4 – and copies of two videos shown at the event.

Attached is: 1) the agenda with copies of their suggested maps; and 2) a scanned copy of the presentation that they made to us – again, with the suggested maps, but also other historical maps of interest.

In general, I believe that the Tribal Council appreciated the effort the Commission made to come and listen to their concerns.

Let us know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Lisa

Presentation Key Points

- While the Yakima Reservation is 1.3 million acres, the service benefit area and environmental stewardship areas extend much further, particularly to the south of the Yakima Reservation
- In the 1991 and 2001 redistricting maps (see maps in “Yakama Presentation” pdf), the Yakima Reservation and Tribal interest areas along the Columbia were contained within single districts.
- The fundamental interest of the Yakama Nation is to remain in a single district.
- In the 2010 districts, the state legislative lines split the reservation East/West, along State Route 97. The congressional boundaries split the reservation North/South, along the Yakima and Klickitat county boundary. These lines left the Yakima Reservations “basically quartered.”
- The 2010 redistricting used State Route 97 as the dividing line between Legislative Districts 14 and 15, dividing the Yakama Nation. While roads may often be natural boundaries in some places, this highway is not such a case.
- The division of the Yakama nation between congressional districts makes it difficult to advocate with federal agencies, such as the Bonneville Power Authority.
- The Yakama Nation’s suggested maps (see maps in Agenda and Presentation documents attached) use the natural boundaries of the Yakima and Columbia rivers as boundary guides.

As part of the presentation, we watched two videos to better understand the Yakama Nation’s history and culture:

1. 2021 "Land of the Yakamas" video produced by the Yakama Nation Fisheries Program regarding resource protection projects, <https://yakamafish-nsn.gov>
2. 2018 video produced for the Yakama Nation hosting the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians, <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1P21lty4dREUZ3PRoF0l4N-gE6v2yqyZN/view?usp=sharing> (The link leads to an uploaded google drive file).

On behalf of the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation (the “Yakama Nation”), I urge the 2021 Redistricting Commission (“Commission”) adopt a redistricting map that places the Yakama Reservation inside a single representative district. Additionally, the Commission is requested for government-to-government consultation with the Yakama Nation Tribal Council in Toppenish, Washington. The Yakama Nation is a sovereign federally-recognized Native Nation pursuant to the Treaty with the Yakamas of June 9, 1855 (the “Treaty”).¹ The Yakama Nation has more than 11,000 enrolled members living across a nearly 1.4 million acre reservation and dispersed throughout a 10 million acre homeland of Yakama’s traditional Treaty-territory.

Prior to 2011, the Yakama Reservation was represented by the 15th Legislative District and the 4th Congressional District – which allowed for Yakama members to cast their votes and manifest political will in unified representative districts at the state and federal level. The Yakama Nation opposes the existing legislative district map, adopted in 2012, which split representation for the Yakama Reservation between the 14th and 15th Legislative Districts along state highway 97. Additionally, the Yakama Reservation now has divided representation between the 3rd and 4th Congressional Districts along the Yakima-Klickitat County boundary line. This absurd quartering of the Yakama Nation’s representative districts means that enrolled members living on different sides of the Yakama Reservation do not have any shared legislative representation at state or federal levels. Indigenous voters and potential indigenous candidates between the municipalities of Toppenish and Glenwood are easily confused or overwhelmed by the array of representative candidates and bodies that emerge on the local, county, legislative district, and congressional district levels. Today's districts harm the Yakama Nation's ability to engage and benefit from the political process. Resolving the split representation for the legislative and congressional districts will improve both voter participation and meaningful representation of the voters' interests.

Yakama Nation urges the Redistricting Commission to reject any legislative map that divides the Yakama Reservation into separate representative districts. Additionally, many enrolled members reside on off-Reservation trust parcels, at traditional family homesteads, or in communities near the usual and accustomed fishing sites along the Columbia River. The Redistricting Commission should further reject any legislative mapping that demonstrably 'cracks' the indigenous voting population located south of the Yakama Reservation in Klickitat and Skamania Counties.

The 2011 Redistricting Commission split the elected representation of tribal communities across Washington. Now, the Yakama Nation calls on this Redistricting Commission to bring fairness and transparency back to the political process by restoring voting equity for the Yakama People. 2021 Redistricting Commission Tribal Consultation Policy

Pursuant to RCW 43.376, the 1989 Centennial Accord, and the 1999 Millennium Agreement, the Redistricting Commission adopted the following Tribal consultation policy on April 12, 2021.

The 2021 Redistricting Commission is committed to respectful and effective communication with Tribal governments on redistricting matters. This Tribal consultation policy is intended to provide a consistent and equitable standard for the Redistricting Commission to consult and work with the 29 Federally Recognized Tribes in Washington State. Consultation means respectful, constructive communication in a cooperative process that respects the Government-to-Government relationship but is not a guarantee of agreement on outcomes. By implementing these principles of consultation, the Redistricting Commission hopes to better understand and respect the sovereign rights and interests of the 29 Federally Recognized Tribes as they impact redistricting matters.

Government-to-Government consultation with the 29 Federally Recognized Tribes will occur independent of any public participation process, but representatives of Tribal governments and Tribal members have equal access to the Commission's public participation processes as well.

Meeting requests or requests for consultation with the 29 Federally Recognized Tribes may be initiated by the Redistricting Commission or by a Tribe. The Executive Director has been designated as the Redistricting Commission Tribal Liaison and is charged with the overall coordination of consultation with 29 Federally Recognized Tribes. Questions, comments, or issues pertaining to the actions, management, or operations of the Redistricting Commission should be first directed to the Executive Director. Depending on the nature of the issue under consideration, consultation may be appropriately held between the Executive Director or designated Commissioners and the recognized governing body of the Tribe or their designee.

The Redistricting Commission will make every effort to reply to Tribal requests for consultation in a timely manner and will be receptive to all requests from Tribal governments or their designee for consultation on issues within the Redistricting Commission's authority. The Redistricting Commission's consultation with 29 Federally Recognized Tribes may also be subject to Open Public Meeting Act and Public Records Act requirements.

Land Of The Yakamas

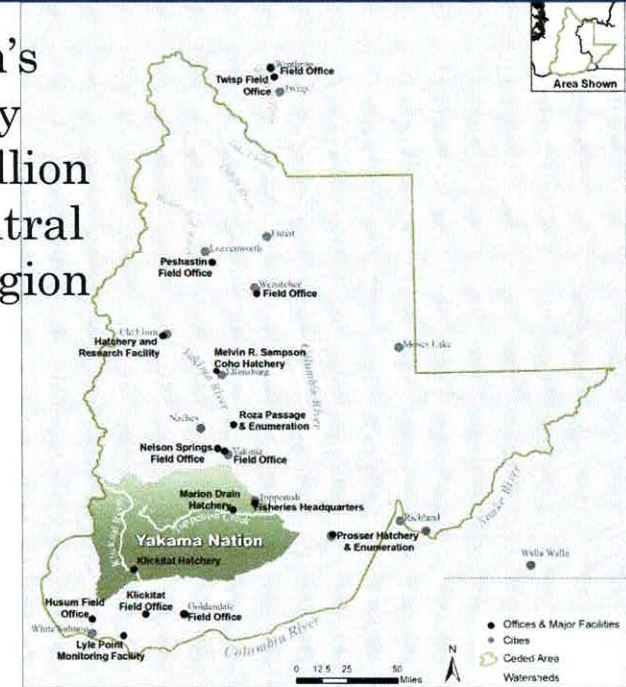

Time Immemorial & Treaty Territory

Yakama trade and travel extended between the headwaters of the Columbia and Snake Rivers.

Yakama Nation's Treaty Territory exceeded 12 million acres in the central Washington Region

Treaty With The Yakamas June 9, 1855 (12 Stat. 951)

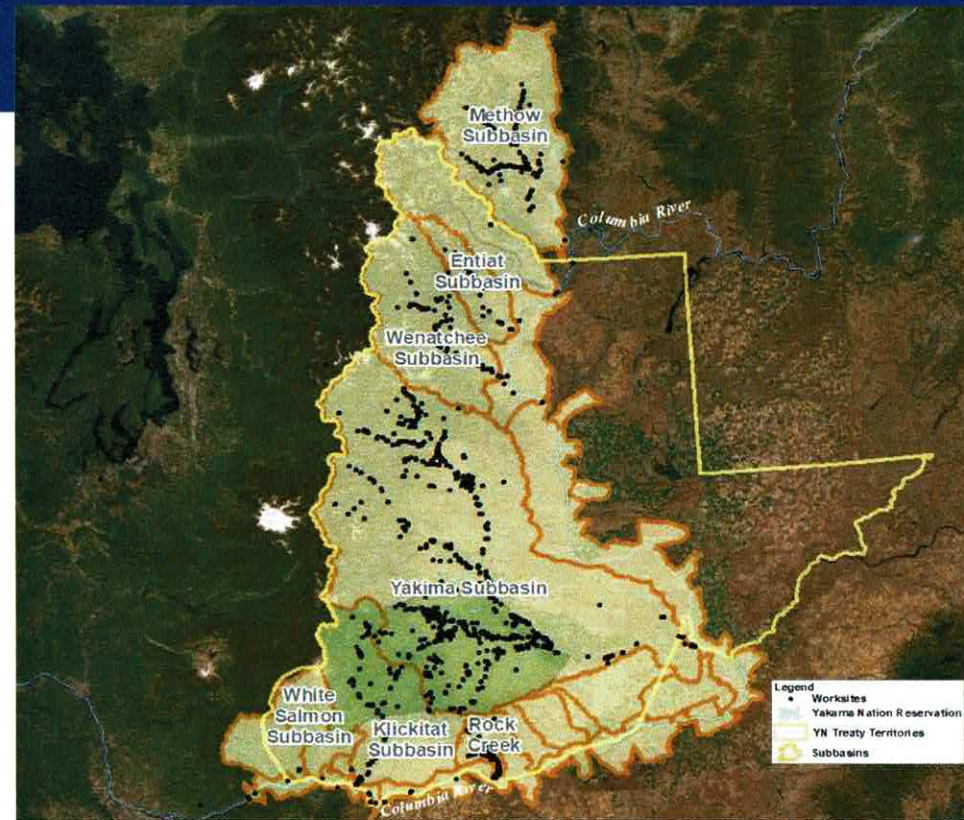

The Yakama Nation reserved a 1.3 million acre Reservation “for the exclusive use and benefit” of the Yakama people, and preserved rights to exercise the Yakama way of life through fishing, hunting, and gathering at usual and accustomed places.

Treaty Access & Ongoing Restoration

- The Yakama Nation is a Co-Manager of the Columbia R. fishery pursuant to its inherent sovereignty, Treaty authority, and recognition by federal courts. See U.S. v. Washington and U.S. v. Oregon.
- Between 2008 – 2020, the Yakama Nation improved 1,483 miles of stream & riparian habitat. See black dots on adjacent map.
- Over 11,000 Members actively exercise Treaty Rights in the Treaty Territory.

Census & Redistricting

- U.S. congressional representation gets reapportioned every 10 years based on population data in the census. See U.S. Constitution, Art. I, sec. 2.
- The first Washington Redistricting Commission met in 1991 following a state constitutional amendment. See State Const. Art. II, sec. 43.
- In 2021, each Legislative District (Olympia Leg.) should represent 157,251 people and each Congressional District (Wash. D.C.) should represent 771,595 people.

Importance Of Redistricting

- The final map allocates elected representation in congress and the state legislature for the new districts.
- Reapportionment and representation significantly impacts funding for federal programs in each district.
- Protects civil liberties and access to voting under the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.

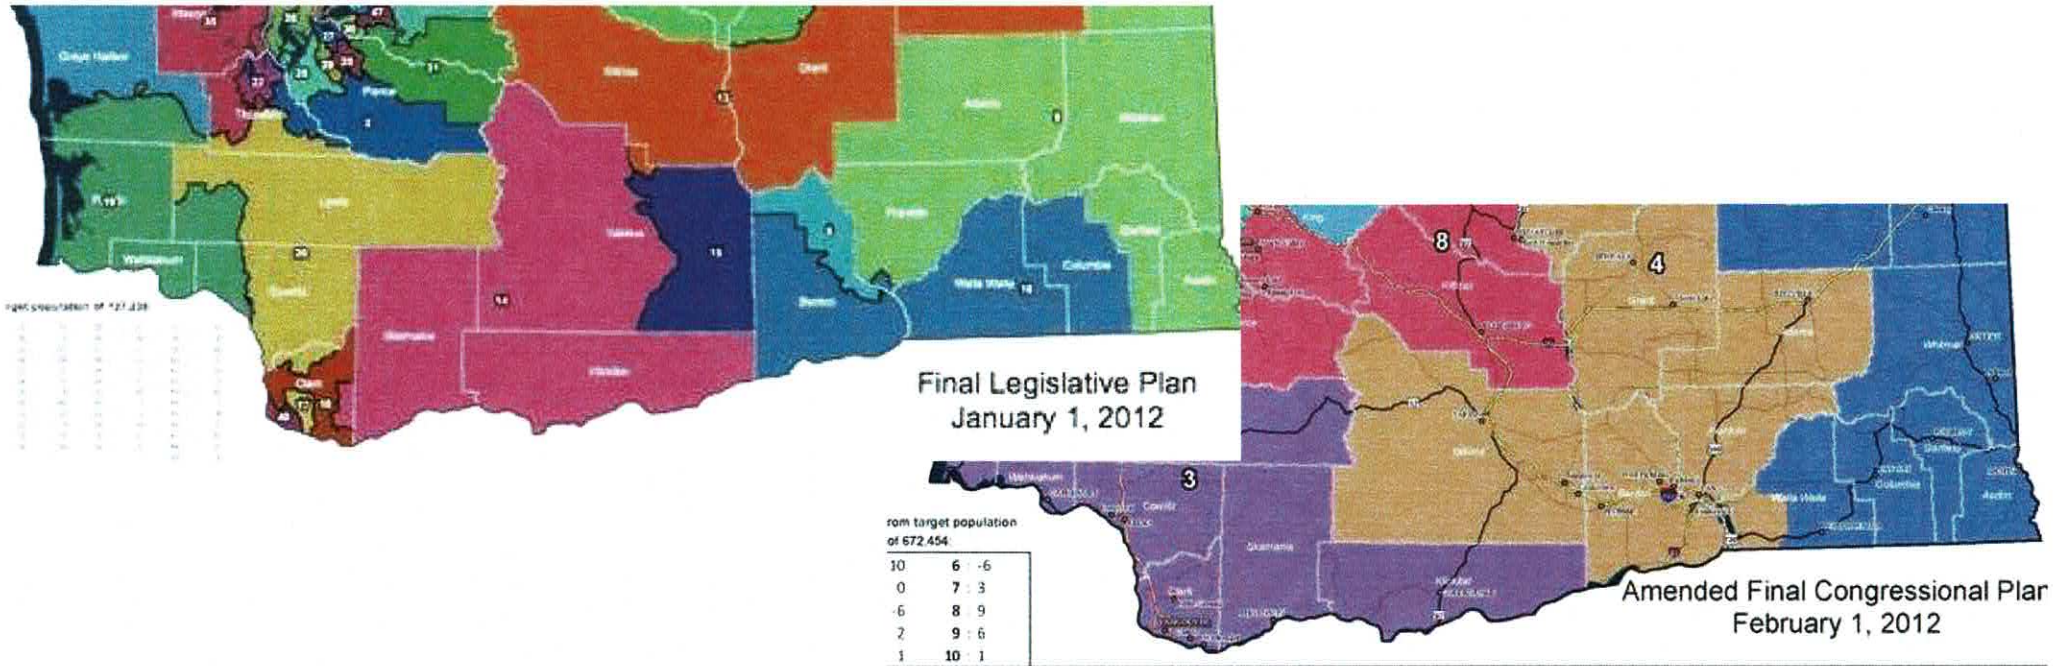

Redistricting Criteria

- Boundaries must be drawn to have near-equal numbers of people;
- Coincide with the boundaries of local political subdivisions and areas recognized as communities of interest;
- Be convenient, contiguous, and compact; and
- Provide fair and effective representation, encourage electoral competition, and do not purposely favor or discriminate against any political party or group.

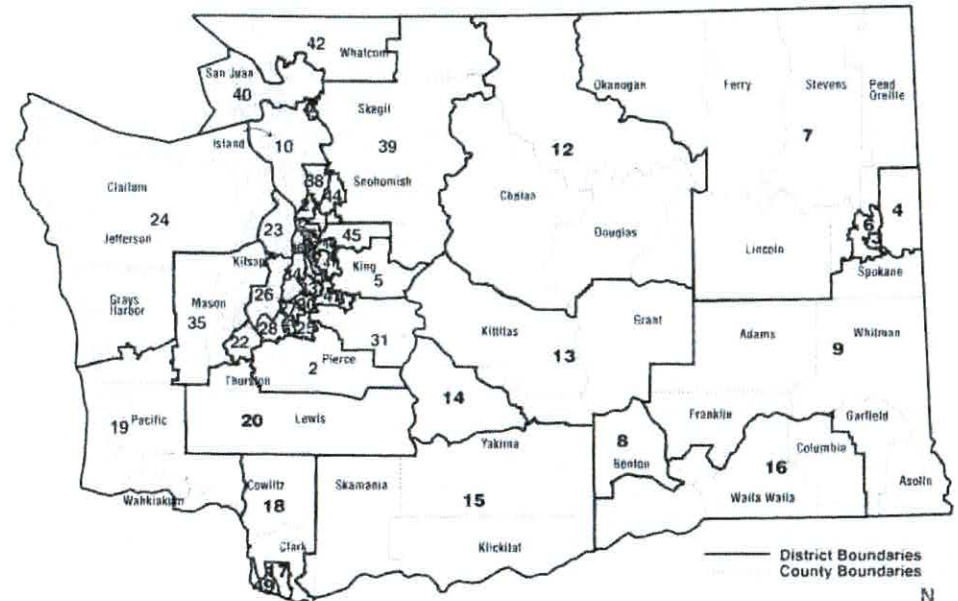

Split Districts Harm Yakama Voters & Government Services

Hi Tony -

Today, we are pleased to share with you the draft legislative district maps proposed by each of the four voting commissioners.

<https://www.redistricting.wa.gov/commissioner-proposed-maps>

The publication of these maps signals the beginning of the negotiation process on the new legislative or Congressional district boundaries, which must be completed by November 15. Next Tuesday at noon, the draft Congressional district maps will be posted at the same location. In addition, shapefiles and pdf maps will be posted at this location within the next 24-48 hours.

Please review the maps and let us know if you or the Tribal Council would like another consultation. Also, please note that, on each of the draft maps, you can create comments by hitting a button in the top right corner. If you need help with any of these processes, feel free to contact Daniel or myself.

With best regards,

Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation

Established by the Treaty of June 9, 1855

Re: Yakama Nation Support For Proposed Legislative And Congressional District Maps

Dear Chair and Commissioners,

The Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation ("Yakama Nation") Tribal Council met with members of the 2021 Redistricting Commission ("Commission") in August 2021 and submitted written comments advocating for single-district representation of the Yakama Reservation ("Reservation") and adjacent Yakama communities. The Yakama Nation is encouraged that every proposed Legislative and Congressional District map is consistent with that important request. Keeping the Reservation in one representative district is critical to the Yakama Nation's advocacy for greater voter participation and political access, services provided to the established communities on- and adjacent to the Reservation, and common-sense incorporation of public safety and natural resource management areas throughout south-central Washington and along the Columbia River.

The Yakama Nation understands that the Commission is subject to state law requirements which cannot be reconciled with all aspects of the Yakama Nation's sovereign status recognized under the Treaty of 1855 ("Treaty") and concurrent federal laws. The Yakama Treaty-territory exceeds 10.5 million acres and includes natural and cultural resources that are reserved in perpetuity under the Treaty to sustain the Yakama way of life. See map attached as Exhibit A. The Yakama Nation's participation in the public redistricting process under state law does not waive, alter, or otherwise diminish the Yakama Nation's inherent sovereign rights or the reserved rights, privileges, remedies, or services guaranteed by the Treaty.

NOVEMBER 4, 2021

Below are specific and responsive comments on the proposed district maps to further assist with the Commission's significant deadline pressure to submit a Final Plan to the Washington Legislature by November 15, 2021. As noted above, the Yakama Nation appreciates the effort demonstrated by every proposed legislative and congressional district map for respecting the political integrity of the Reservation boundary.

Commissioner Piñero Walkinshaw's Proposed Congressional District

The Yakama Nation specifically favors the elements of Commissioner Piñero Walkinshaw's proposed Congressional District 4 because the proposed district (map attached as Exhibit B):

- maintains the political integrity of the federal reservation boundaries for the Yakama Nation, the Confederated Tribes of the Colville, and the Spokane Tribe of Indians;
- incorporates Yakama members and non-Yakama Native Americans living in established tribal communities on the reservations, off the reservations, and on federal trust properties;
- creates shared representative interests in protecting water quality and habitat along a majority of the Columbia River and many of its tributary basins;
- includes critical natural resource management areas for the protection of forests and rivers that provide access to hunting, fishing, and gathering in usual and accustomed areas identified in the Treaty;
- encompasses a large portion of the traditional and cultural areas that the Yakama Nation continues to preserve and protect;
- includes the Yakama Nation's significant human service areas and public safety districts adjacent to the Reservation; and
- boldly creates a district of U.S – tribal interests to represent the largest land base of Indian Country, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1151, in the Pacific Northwest and also in Washington State's history since its modern era of fully assigned congressional districts.

Commissioner Graves' Proposed Legislative District.

The Yakama Nation specifically favors the elements of Commissioner Graves' proposed Legislative District 14 that (map attached as Exhibit B):

- is consistent with the Yakama Reservation boundary;
- incorporates Yakama members living in established tribal communities off-Reservation and on federal trust property along the Columbia River;
- includes the Yakama Nation's significant human service areas and public safety districts adjacent to the Reservation; and,

NOVEMBER 4, 2021

- includes critical natural resource management areas for the protection of adjacent forests and rivers.

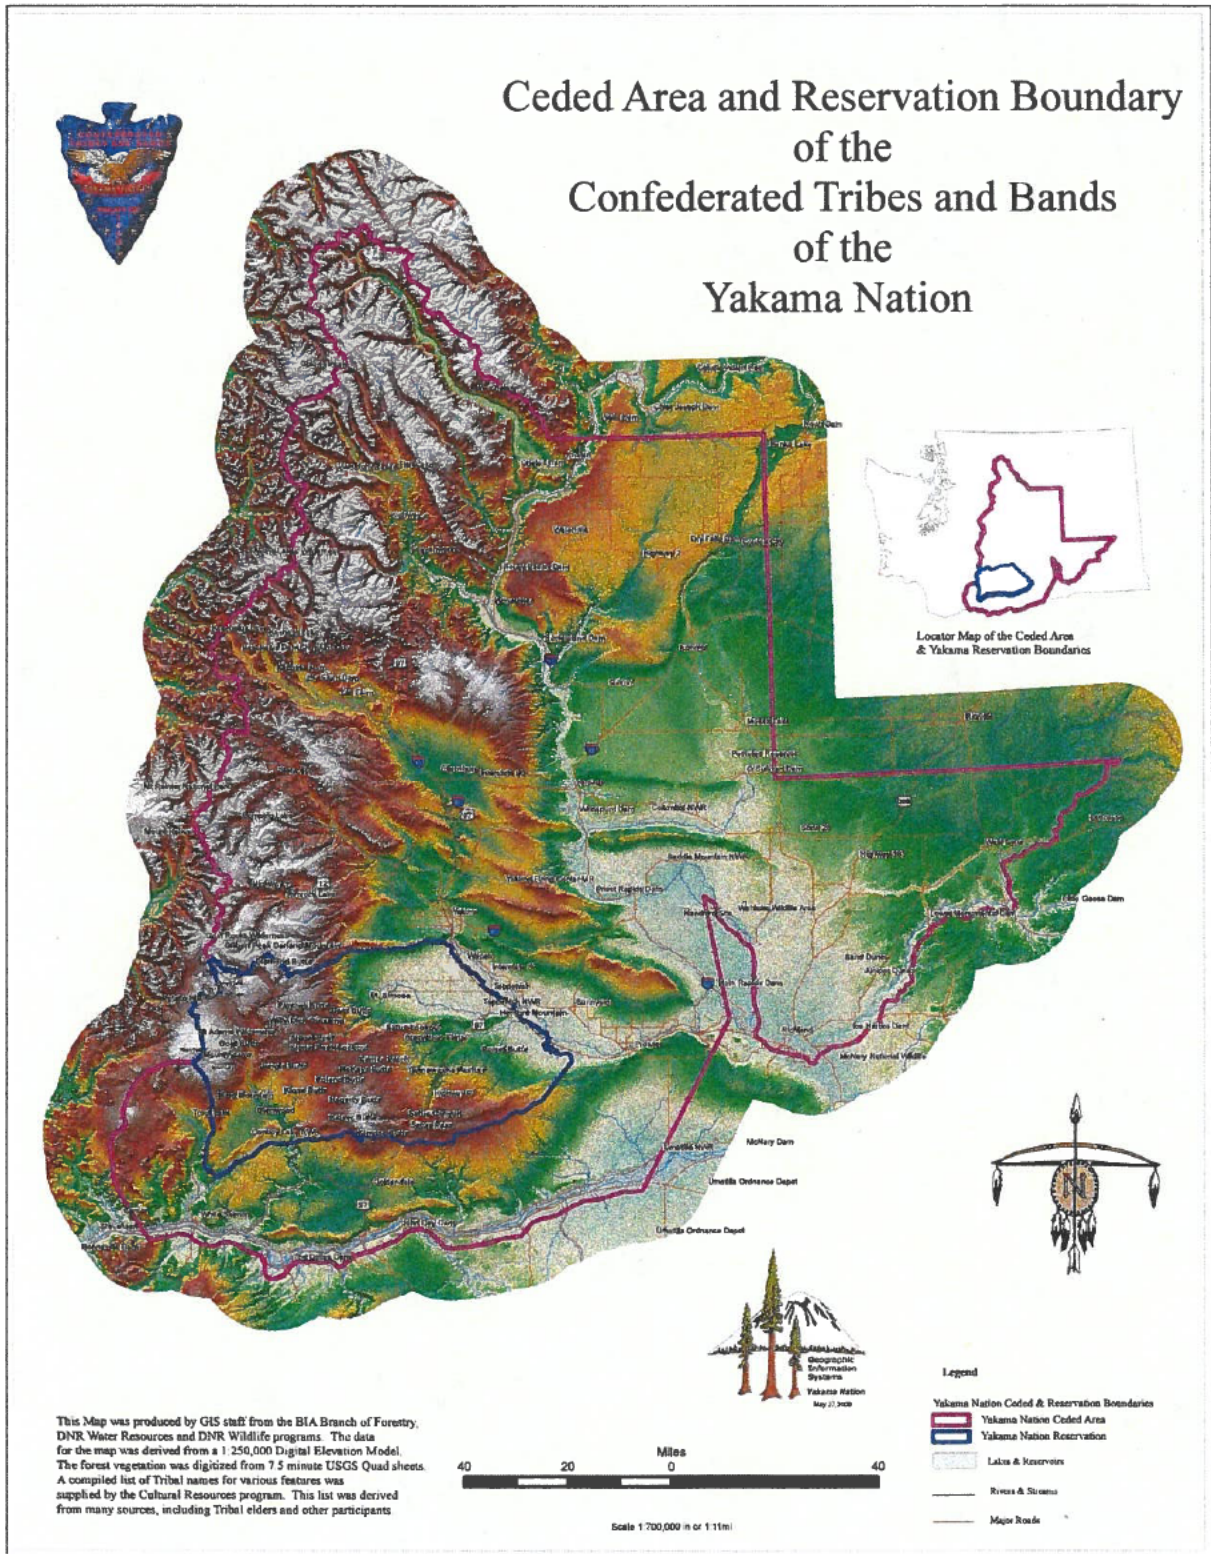

The Yakama Nation has inherent and Treaty-reserved rights that are necessary for the protection of the human and environmental resources for the generations of Yakamas to come. Under the United States system of federalism, gaining equal representation under the law and equitable access to the law-making is also a sacred right that has not always been historically available to Yakamas or indigenous people and governments. I thank the Commissioners for the hard work and attention undertaken by this once-in-a-decade process to produce representative districts that will strengthen the democratic system of government over the next ten years.
