Supreme Court of Wisconsin

NO. 2025XX1438 BOTHFELD V. WIS. ELECTIONS COMM'N L.C.#2025CV2432

October 17, 2025

The Court has entered the following order:

The court having considered the motion of proposed intervenors-defendants, Congressmen Glenn Grothman et al., to intervene as defendants in this miscellaneous proceeding in this court, as well as the response thereto filed by Elizabeth Bothfeld et al.;

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is granted,[1] and the proposed initial brief in response to this court's September 25, 2025 order, the proposed motions to recuse Justice Janet C. Protasiewicz and Justice Susan M. Crawford, and the proposed accompanying appendices are accepted for filing.

JANET C. PROTAISEWICZ and SUSAN M. CRAWFORD, JJ., did not participate in this order.

Samuel A. Christensen
Clerk of Supreme Court

[1] This order grants these movants intervenor party status only in the miscellaneous proceeding in this court. The court has designated the intervenors as defendants in this miscellaneous proceeding in this court due to the nature of the relief they request; namely, that this court decline to appoint a three-judge panel and dismiss the circuit court complaint that gave rise to this miscellaneous matter. The court's granting of the motion and designation of the intervenors as defendants in this miscellaneous proceeding does not grant these individuals intervenor party status in the underlying circuit court case.
